Mastery Impulse Carnegie Mellon Poetry Paperback:

One Island, Many Voices Eduardo R. del Rio, 2022-04-12 Cuban American writers have been studied primarily within the context of Latino literature as a whole. Seeing a need to distinguish and define this unique literary perspective, Eduardo del Rio selected twelve important well-known authors and conducted interviews. He chose writers who were born in Cuba but have lived in the United States for a significant amount of time and whose works include themes he considers elemental to Cuban American literature: identity, duality, memory, and exile. But rather than a cohesive homogeneous group, these conversations unveiled a kaleidoscope of individuality, style, and motive. The authors' bonds to Cuba inform their creative work in vastly different ways, and attempts to categorize their similarities only highlight the range of character and experience within this assemblage of talented writers. From playwright Dolores Prida to author and literary critic Gustavo P. rez Firmat, these voices run the gamut of both genre and personality. In addition to the essential facts of literary accomplishment, the interviews include a wealth of insight into each writer's history, motivations, concerns, and relationship to language. These personal details serve to humanize and illuminate the unique circumstances and realities that have shaped both the authors and their work. What del Rio has ultimately brought together is a series of intimate sketches that will not only serve as an important reference for any discussion of the literature but will also help readers to develop for themselves a sense of what Cuban American writing is and what it is not.

CONTENTS Preface Acknowledgments Introduction Nilo Cruz Roberto Fern ndez Cristina Garc a Carolina Hospital Eduardo Machado Dionisio Mart nez Pablo Medina Achy Obejas Ricardo Pau Llosa Gustavo P rez Firmat Dolores Prida Virgil Su rez Epilogue Notes Bibliography Index A Poet's Truth Bruce Allen Dick, 2022-02-22 Among students and aficionados of contemporary literature, the work of Latina and Latino poets holds a particular fascination. Through works imbued with fire and passion, these writers have kindled new enthusiasm in their compatriots and admiration in non-Latino readers. This book brings together recent interviews with fifteen Latino poets, a cross section of Chicano, Puerto Rican, and Cuban voices who discuss not only their work but also related issues that help define their place in American literature. Each talks at length about the craft of his or her poetry, both the influences and the process behind it, and takes a stand on social and political issues affecting Latinos across the United States. The interviews feature both established writers published as early as the 1960s and emerging artists, each of whom has enjoyed success in other literary forms also. As Bruce Dick's insightful questions reveal, the key threads linking these writers are their connections to their families and communities and their concern for civil rights, believing like Chicana writer Pat Mora that the work of the poet is for the people. The interviews also reveal diversity among and within the three communities: from Victor Hern ndez Cruz, who traces Latino collective identity to Africa and claims that all Latinos are swimming in olive oil, to Cuban writer Gustavo Perez Firmat, who considers nationality more important than ethnicity and says that the term Latino erases his nationality. The dialogues also offer new insights on the place of Chicano writings in the U.S.-Mexico borderlands.
