Material Culture Of Zimbabwe:

The Material Culture of Zimbabwe H. Ellert,1984 Crafting Identity in Zimbabwe and Mozambique Elizabeth MacGonagle,2007 Crosses conventional theoretical temporal and geographical boundaries to show how the Ndau of southeast Africa actively shaped their own identity over a four hundred year period Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology

Great Zimbabwe Joseph O. Vogel,2019-08-22 First Published in 1994 This research guide was written as a comprehensive though by no means exhaustive survey of the literature pertinent to studying the indigenous complex societies of south central Africa Although the paramount focus of the compilation was the archaeology of Great Zimbabwe the author has drawn from a broad geographical area and a wider period of time than that usually associated with Zimbabwean culture in order to demonstrate the cultural background for the growth of monumental trading towns in south central Africa The Oxford Handbook of African Archaeology Peter Mitchell,Paul Lane,2013-07-04 This Handbook provides a comprehensive synthesis of African archaeology covering the entirety of the continent s past from the beginnings of human evolution to the archaeological legacy of European colonialism It includes a mixture of key methodological and theoretical issues and debates and situates the subject s contemporary practice Global Agricultural Marketing Management Steve Carter,Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,1997-01-01

Revaluation and Preservation of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Modern Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie,Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile,2025-05-08 Indigenous Knowledge can be used to integrate education in today s society honoring and respecting the diversity of knowledge sources and fostering an inclusive and fair learning environment This increases cultural pride and consequently the drive to find creative solutions to local problems using resources and inventiveness that are available locally Indigenous people have important knowledge about the ecosystem in the area and how best to manage its natural resources A growing number of people outside of indigenous knowledge systems are interested in them as a result of the current global ecological catastrophe and the understanding that overuse of natural resources arises from unsuitable attitudes and technology Indigenous Knowledge is the basis from which alternative ways of managing resources can be developed using indigenous technologies that are cost effective and economically affordable Revaluation and Preservation of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in Modern Society contributes to the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society by focusing on the preservation promotion and dissemination of indigenous knowledge Covering topics such as food security intellectual property protection and biocultural community protocols this book is an excellent resource for knowledge managers records managers indigenous knowledge owners indigenous communities librarians computer scientists data curators sociologists anthropologists policymakers government officials professionals researchers scholars academicians and more Zimbabwe Books in Print ,1998 African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities Nomatter Sande,2022-08-30

This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders The Arts of Africa

,1995 Exhibiting Cultures Rockefeller Foundation,1991 Bringing together museum directors curators and scholars in art history folklore history and anthropology Exhibiting Cultures engages in debate over meaning and representation that have accompanied and driven museums efforts regarding multiculturalism The contributors represent a variety of stances on the role of museums and their function as intermediaries between the makers of art or artifacts and the eventual viewers

The Soapstone Birds of Great Zimbabwe Edward Matenga,1998 Beautifully produced and illustrated this study of the Zimbabwean birds is more than a description or history of the eight soapstone carvings found at the Great Zimbabwe historical site It offers an insight into an aspect of the cultural heritage of Zimbabwe and an interpretation of the important site of Great Zimbabwe from which it is inherited The story of the birds is used to explore themes in Zimbabwean historiography By focusing on the religious symbolism of the birds the author argues that the Great Zimbabwe site was both a political and religious centre Practically the work illustrates the central symbolic meaning of the birds to the people and nation of Zimbabwe And the work is in the context of the construction of an authentic national history In a foreword the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Zimbabwe says that the birds are constituents of a living tradition embodying the body spirit of the modern national state of Zimbabwe Monomotapa L. A. Fadeyev,1962 Southern Africa and the Swahili World Felix Chami,Gilbert Pwiti,2002 The sequel to People Contacts and the Environment in the African Past published under the auspices of a thriving and diverse regional archaeology research project Human Responses and Contributions to Environmental Change in Africa The book series aims to disseminate the project s results and stimulate debate on current issues relating to the archaeology of the region from specific and regional perspectives The editors present an overview study of the Swahili World and the excavation of Kaole ruins and there is a chapter in French on the bi partition of Swahili sites taking the example of Gede Three papers are on Zimbabwean archaeology one of which presents findings from recent surveys in northern Zimbabwe and their contribution to an understanding of the cultural history and spatial behaviour of pre historic farming communities in the area The other papers cover the merits of using ceramics as material culture to interpret aspects of pre historic human behaviour in Southern Africa the history of glass beads and iron metallurgy across the region and the effect of geo environmental aspects on the location of sites on the central coast of Tanzania Zimbabwea ,1997 Africa Seminar: Collected Papers University of Cape Town. Centre for African Studies,1984 Enterprising Women in Urban Zimbabwe Mary Johnson Osirim,2009-04-24 Mary Johnson Osirim investigates the business and personal experiences of women entrepreneurs in Harare and Bulawayo Zimbabwe to understand their successes challenges and contributions to development These businesswomen work in the microenterprise sector which is defined as businesses that employ five workers or fewer with many working as market traders crocheters seamstresses and hairdressers The women who took part in Osirim s research during the 1990s pursued their businesses reinvested profits engaged in innovation and provided employment and through their work supported households and extended family and social networks Osirim finds that despite major problems the Zimbabwean businesswomen maintained their enterprises and their households and managed to contribute in significant ways to their community and national development in the face of an economic structural adjustment program Osirim also explores the impact of state and non governmental organizations on small business operations Enterprising Women in Urban Zimbabwe offers a comprehensive study of women s role as entrepreneurs in the microeconomic sector that shows them as agents during challenging political and economic times
