Material Girl Bess Of Hardwick 1527 1608:

A Material Girl Kate Hubbard, 2001 In this portrait Bess emerges as an insatiable force a towering personality in an age of giant egos She was a much married shopaholic social schemer and master builder Bess in her prime rivalled the power and influence of Elizabeth I A Biographical Encyclopedia of Early Modern Englishwomen Carole Levin, Anna Riehl Bertolet, Jo Eldridge Carney, 2016-11-03 From the exemplary to the notorious to the obscure this comprehensive and innovative encyclopedia showcases the worthy women of early modern England Poets princesses or pirates the women of power and agency found in these pages are indeed worth knowing and this volume will introduce many female figures to even the most established scholars in early modern studies Rather than using the conventional alphabetical format of the standard biographical encyclopedia this volume is divided into categories of women Since many women will fit in more than one category each woman is placed in the category that best exemplifies her life and is cross referenced in other appropriate sections This structure makes the book an interesting read for seasoned scholars of early modern women while students need not already be familiar with these subjects in order to benefit from the text Another unusual feature of this reference work is that each entry begins with some incident from the woman's life that is particularly exciting or significant Some entries are very brief while others are extensive Each includes a source listing The book is well illustrated and liberally sprinkled with quotations of the time either by or about the women in the text Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance Anne R. Larsen, Diana Robin, Carole Levin, 2007-03-01 This work is a revealing combination of biographies and topical essays that describe the outstanding and often overlooked contributions of women to the science politics and culture of the Renaissance Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance Italy France and England is the first first comprehensive reference devoted exclusively to the contributions of women to European culture in the period between 1350 and 1700 Focusing principally on early modern women in England France and Italy it offers over 135 biographies of the extraordinary women of those times Encyclopedia of Women in the Renaissance provides vivid portraits of well known women such as Catherine of Siena Joan of Arc Mary Queen of Scots and Christine de Pizan Also included are less familiar but equally important women like Elena Lucrezia Cornaro the first woman in Europe to earn a doctorate the renowned Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi and the acclaimed author of medical textbooks and midwife to a French queen Louise Boursier Based on the latest research and enhanced with thematic essays this groundbreaking work casts our understanding of women's lives and roles in Renaissance history and culture in a provocative new light Women and Politics in Early Modern England, 1450-1700 James Daybell, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays examines women's involvement in politics in early modern England as writers as members of kinship and patronage networks and as petitioners intermediaries and patrons It challenges conventional conceptualizations of female power and influence defining politics broadly in order to incorporate women excluded from formal male dominated state institutions The chapters embrace a range of interdisciplinary approaches historical literary palaeographic linguistic and gender based They deal with a variety of issues related to female intervention within political spheres including women s rhetorical persuasive and communicative skills the production by women of a range of texts that can be termed political the politicization of marital family and kinship networks and female involvement in patronage and court politics Women and Politics in Early Modern England 1450 700 also looks at ways in which images of female power and authority were represented within canonical texts such as Shakespeare s plays and Milton s epic poetry The volume extends the range of areas and texts for the study of women gender and politics and locates women s political social and cultural activities within the contexts of the family locality and wider national stage It argues for a blurring of the boundaries between the traditional categories of the public and the private the domestic and the political and enhances our understanding of the ways in which women exerted political force through informal intimate and personal as well as more official and formal channels of power As a whole the book makes an important contribution to the reassessment of early modern politics from the perspective of women

Authorizing Early Modern European Women James Fitzmaurice, Naomi Miller, Sara Jayne Steen, 2025-10-01 The essays in this volume analyze strategies adopted by contemporary novelists playwrights screenwriters and biographers interested in bringing the stories of early modern women to modern audiences It also pays attention to the historical women creators themselves who be they saints or midwives visual artists or poets and playwrights stand out for their roles as active practitioners of their own arts and for their accomplishments as creators Whether they delivered infants or governed as monarchs or produced embroideries letters paintings or poems their visions the authors argue have endured across the centuries As the title of the volume suggests the essays gathered here participate in a wider conversation about the relation between biography historical fiction and the growing field of biofiction that is contemporary fictionalizations of historical figures and explore the complicated interconnections between celebrating early modern women and perpetuating popular stereotypes about them

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas, 2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on

Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
