Maternal and Neonatal Nursing: Family-Centered Care Kathryn A. May, Laura R. Mahlmeister, 1993-10-01 Maternal and Neonatal Nursing Kathryn A. May, Laura Rose Mahlmeister, 1994 Family-Centered Care for the Newborn Terry Griffin, Joanna Celenza, 2014-04-23

Many regulatory and professional agencies countenance the idea of patient and family centered care yet lack an infrastructure able to support such care or employ health care professionals who lack the necessary education experience or skills. This book is a comprehensive guide to family centered care for healthy ill or preterm newborns. It guides health care professionals in creating, supporting, and advancing a culture that values partnerships with families. The book is replete with practical suggestions, strategies, and best practices for health professionals who wish to develop partnerships with families before and after childbirth. At the core of family centered care is the belief that family centered care and the ability to convey its particular language is as important to newborn and family wellbeing as clinical care. The book is based on four guiding principles that include treating people with dignity and respect, providing information in ways that are useful and affirming, welcoming family participation in care and decision making at a level chosen by the family, and collaborating with families at the bedside and beyond. The book offers strategies to promote implementation of a family centered environment in the delivery room or NICU, practical approaches to communicating with families before and after delivery, and tips on policy review to facilitate a culture of family centered care. It also discusses how to welcome families during interdisciplinary rounds and nurse hand offs, and ways to support families during procedures and resuscitation.

Family-centered Maternity Care Celeste R. Phillips, 2003

Family Centered Maternity Care is an approach to providing care for women and their families that integrates pregnancy, childbirth, postpartum, and infant care into the continuum of the family life cycle as normal, healthy life events. The care provided is individualized and recognizes the importance of family support, participation, and choice. Family Centered Maternity Care offers strategies and methods to bring this philosophy into maternity service operations in hospitals. This text is intended to help physicians and nurses promote quality care for families in their practice. It provides examples for developing Family Centered Maternity Care programs in hospitals, policies and procedures for implementing such programs, sample forms, and even assessment criteria for hospitals to evaluate their level of compliance with Family Centered Maternity Care standards. Family Centered Maternity Care is an effective method of ensuring patient and family education and involvement in care as well as providing the caregiver with a sense of fulfillment and commitment to care. Family Centered Maternity Care is an incomparable resource to help all birth
