On Western Influences and the Transformation of Chinese Academic Thought Qing Zhang, 2025-12-18 This book analyses the growth of disciplinary knowledge in modern China through Sino foreign cultural exchange. It examines Western influences and the transformation of Chinese academic thought through modern scientific disciplines rather than mere westernization based on the nationality of knowledge. Historically this transformation is not the unidirectional eastward dissemination of Western learning but the introduction of West learning into China with more active participation and choice by Chinese scholars. This understanding of the historical process focuses more on the innovation of the medium of knowledge emphasizing the material and technological background of the dissemination of Western learning.

Tang Yijie, 2022-09-29 The title is a collection of essays centering on the topic of intercultural communication between Chinese and Western cultures by Tang Yijie one of the most renowned philosophy scholars in China. Comprised of five parts the author discusses how Chinese culture should modernize itself through borrowing from Western culture premised on a self awareness of Chinese culture per se. The book begins by critiquing theories of the so called clash of civilizations and new empires and argues for the coexistence of cultures and a global consciousness instead. Chapters in the second part revisit contemporary Chinese culture in transition and call for the cultural integration of China and the West with China defined in both its ancient and modern guises. By providing reflections on the cultural trends of the 1980s and 1990s the third part illustrates the inevitable growth of diversified cultural development while analyzing cases of cultural dialogue in history philosophy and religion. The fourth part demonstrates the significance of culture diversity and interaction while the fifth provides thoughts and reflections on some real life cultural issues.
