Karol, 2022-04-28 This book takes an interdisciplinary transnational and cross cultural approach to reflect on critically examine and challenge the surprisingly robust practice of making art after death in an artist's name through the lenses of scholars from the fields of art history economics and law as well as practicing artists Works of art conceived as multiples such as sculptures etchings prints photographs and conceptual art can be and often are remade from original models and plans long after the artist has passed Recent sales have suggested a growing market embrace of posthumous works contemporaneous with questioning on the part of art history Legal norms seem unready for this surge in posthumous production and are beset by conflict across jurisdictions Non Western approaches to posthumous art from Chinese emulations of non living artists to Native American performances take into account rituals of generational passage at odds with contemporary market driven approaches The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history the art market art law art management museum studies and economics

The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin, 2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period     “THE PANZA COLLECTION”, 1985     ART OF THE SIXTIES AND SEVENTIES
