Paradise Gardens Landscape Gardening In The Islamic Tradition:

Paradise Gardens Arnaud Maurieres, Eric Ossart, 2001 Most sacred texts describe paradise as a garden and the very word derives from the ancient Persian word for garden pardis Within the walls of this garden the abundance of fruit the colour and scent of flowers the softness of the ground the murmur of water and the music of birdsong arouse the senses Paradise Gardens Monty Don, Derry Moore, 2018-03-22 Lavish a celebration of the history and enduring romance of Islamic gardens Washington Post As seen on the highly acclaimed BBC2 series Monty Don's Paradise Gardens a glorious celebration of the richness of Islamic culture through some of the most beautiful gardens on earth In the Islamic tradition a garden with its central elements of water the scent of fruit trees and places for rest and reflection celebrate heaven on earth Paradise gardens play a central role in everyday life in the Islamic world yet little is known about them Monty Don and acclaimed photographer Derry Moore set off on a journey to find out more about the principles and immersive delights of paradise gardens and how a very different culture and climate has influenced garden design round the world Their journey covers twenty nine gardens from the Real Alcazar and the Alhambra in Spain and Le Jardin Majorelle in Morocco to Highgrove and a Mughal garden in Bradford in England There are some spectacular and rarely seen examples such as Pasargadae and the Maidan in Isfahan Iran the birthplace of paradise gardens as well as the more renowned examples such as Turkey's Topkapi Palace and the Amber Palace and Taj Mahal in India A garden green and filled with water is heaven on earth it is paradise Monty Don ALSO BY MONTY DON DERRY MOORE JAPANESE GARDENS A JOURNEY An exploration of the exquisite beauty and fascinating history of the most beautiful and famous gardens across Japan from Kenrok-en to the Zen gardens of Tokyo A fabulous bonsai filled book Daily Mail Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild Ruggles, 2008-02-13 A comprehensive survey of Islamic gardens from antiquity through to the present Perspectives on Garden Histories Michel Conan, 1999 Garden history is a discipline of contested purposes Perspectives on Garden Histories contributes to a self critical examination of this emergent field of study at the same time offering an overview of its main achievements in several domains such as Italian and Mughal gardens and of the new kinds of investigation to which they have led In its early years garden history centered on architectural studies of garden design but in the 1960s the emphasis shifted from garden design to garden meaning The new paradigm considered gardens as complex works of art and demanded an extensive documentation of the historical context as well as of the figurative and discursive sources This approach in its turn was challenged by neo Marxist scholars who proceeded to view landscape appreciation as an ideological superstructure an outgrowth of agricultural production processes Garden designs and their histories can also be viewed as expressions of ideological conflicts in society Neither gardens nor their history can thus be studied independently of the social cultural and political movements that give prominence to the contested ideologies Gardens can be used to foster some ideologies or reflect a reaction against a social change Comparative research offers another fascinating approach exploring the relations between European landscape concepts and other cultural contexts and discussing issues of cultural dominance and interpretation The emergence of various perspectives has led to the incorporation of further questions into the domain of garden studies which has been moving in new directions and using new methods in search of an adapted theoretical framework This volume offers a striking view of changes taking place in the discipline
