Cox,2004-05-20 Jeffrey N Cox refines our conception of second generation Romanticism by placing it within the circle of writers around Leigh Hunt that came to be known as the Cockney School Offering a theory of the group as a key site for cultural production Cox challenges the traditional image of the Romantic poet as an isolated figure by recreating the social nature of the work of Shelley Keats Hunt Hazlitt Byron and others as they engaged in literary contests wrote poems celebrating one another and worked collaboratively on journals and other projects Cox also recovers the work of neglected writers such as John Hamilton Reynolds Horace Smith and Cornelius Webb as part of the rich social and cultural context of Hunt s circle This book not only demonstrates convincingly that a Cockney School existed but shows that it was committed to putting literature in the service of social cultural and political reform    George Washington Barbara J.
