Both Mr and Mrs Brindley had evidently a humorous appreciation of crises, contretemps and those collisions of circumstances which are usually called junctures for short. I could have imagined either of them saying to the other Here's a funny thing. The house is on fire. And then yielding to laughter as they ran for buckets Mrs Brindley in particular laughed now she gazed at the table cloth and laughed almost silently to herself though it appeared that their joint forgetfulness might result in temporary estrangement from a venerable ancestor who was also birthdays being duly observed a continual fount of rich presents in speci
