Material Strategies Dress And Gender In Historical Perspective:

Special Issue: Material Strategies Barbara Burman, 2002 Gender, Imperialism and Global Exchanges Stephan F. Miescher, Michele Mitchell, Naoko Shibusawa, 2015-05-06 Gender Imperialism and Global Exchanges presents a collection of original readings that address gendered dimensions of empire from a wide range of geographical and temporal settings. Draws on original research on gender and empire in relation to labour commodities fashion politics mobility and visibility. Includes coverage of gender issues from countries in Africa the Americas Europe and Asia between the eighteenth to twentieth centuries. Highlights a range of transnational and transregional connections across the globe. Features innovative gender analyses of the circulation of people ideas and cultural practices. Black France Dominic Thomas, 2007 Without a doubt one of the most important studies so far completed on literature in French grounded in the experiences of migrants of sub-Saharan African origin. Alec Hargreaves Florida State University France has always hosted a rich and vibrant black presence within its borders. But recent violent events have raised questions about France's treatment of ethnic minorities. Challenging the identity politics that have set immigrants against the mainstream Black France explores how black expressive culture has been reformulated as global culture in the multicultural and multinational spaces of France. Thomas brings forward questions such as Why is France a privileged site of civilization? Who is French? Who is an immigrant? Who controls the networks of production? Black France poses an urgently needed reassessment of the French colonial legacy.

The Pocket Barbara Burman, Ariane Fennetaux, 2020-04-24 A New York Times Best Art Book of 2019 A riveting book few stones are left unturned. Roberta Smith's Top Art Books of 2019 The New York Times This fascinating and enlightening study of the tie on pocket combines materiality and gender to provide new insight into the social history of women's everyday lives from duchesses and country gentry to prostitutes and washerwomen and to explore their consumption practices sociability mobility privacy and identity. A wealth of evidence reveals unexpected facets of the past bringing women's stories into intimate focus. What particularly interests Burman and Fennetaux is the way in which women of all classes have historically used these tie on pockets as a supplementary body part to help them negotiate their way through a world that was not built to suit them. Kathryn Hughes The Guardian A brilliant book. Ulinka Rublack Times Literary Supplement The Material Renaissance Michelle O'Malley, Evelyn Welch, 2007 Despite the recent interests of economic and art historians in the workings of the market we still know remarkably little about the everyday context for the exchange of objects and the meaning of demand in the lives of individuals in the Renaissance. Nor do we have much sense of the relationship between the creation and purchase of works of art and the production buying and selling of other types of objects in Italy in the period. The Material Renaissance addresses these issues of economic and social life. Journal of Women's History, 2003

the significance of consumption and market Their patrons understood the value of spectacle the usefulness of advertising and the efficacy of exhibition The emphasis is upon how and why they adopted these strategies to promote and sell cottage crafts for the benefit of rural workers The introduction provides an overview of home arts and industries in Britain as part of the late nineteenth century craft revival and examines the difference between the large English based Home Arts and Industries Association and other home arts organisations in England Scotland Wales and Ireland
