Maternal Impressions Pregnancy And Childbirth In Literature And Theory:

Maternal Impressions Cristina Mazzoni, 2002 In an unusual combination of reflection autobiography theory and criticism Cristina Mazzoni looks at childbirth and early maternity from the perspective of an academic mother with three young children Mazzoni draws upon examples ranging from contemporary advice manuals and novels to the work of turn of the century Italian scientists and women writers as well as fairy tales religious texts psychoanalytic accounts and feminist theory Throughout her investigations of the various forces that shape cultural views of pregnancy and childbirth Mazzoni strives to imagine and deploy maternity as a concept and a reality capable of challenging conventional representations of subjectivity The questions she addresses dwell on relationship and interdependence the inseparability of the personal and the political and the connections and interactions between bodies and power Maternal Impressions is far more than a book of literary criticism and theory It reveals the multiple bonds and continuities between the contradictory ways in which pregnancy and childbirth were represented a century ago and the manner in which they still haunt feminist experience today In her conclusion Mazzoni points toward a possible ethics of maternity

Culture and Medicine Rishi Goyal, Arden Hegele, 2022-10-20 Charting shared advances across the emerging fields of medical humanities and health humanities this book engages with the question of how biomedical knowledge is constructed negotiated and circulated as a cultural practice The volume is composed of a series of pathbreaking inter disciplinary essays that bring sociocultural habits of mind and modes of thought to the study of medicine health and patients These juxtapositions create new forms of knowledge while emphasizing the vulnerability of human bodies anti essentialist approaches to biology a sensitivity to language and rhetoric and an attention to social justice These essays dissect the ways that cultural practices define the limits of health and the body from the body's place and trajectory in the world to how bodies relate to one another from questions about ageing and sex to what counts as health and illness Considering how these and other concepts are shaped by a negotiation between medico scientific knowledge and ways of knowing derived from other domains this book provides important new insights into how biomedical frameworks become settled forms for broader cultural understanding

Nineteenth-Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question Catherine Ramsey-Portolano, 2020-10-01 Nineteenth Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question focuses on the literary journalistic and epistolary production of Italian woman writer Neera pseudonym for Anna Radius Zuccari one of the most prolific and successful women writers of late nineteenth century Italy This study proposes to bring Neera out of the shadows of literary marginality to which she has long been confined by analyzing her contribution to literary and cultural debates as testimony to the pivotal role she played in the creation of a female literary voice within the Italian fin de siècle context Drawing from the Anglo American feminist critical tradition modern Italian feminist theory on the maternal order and sexual difference and a close reading of Neera's literary theoretical and epistolary writings this volume examines Neera's work from a three pronged perspective as promoter of a maternal order in contrast to the existent paternal order as one of few women writers to participate actively in Italy's verismo movement and as epistolary correspondent of leading representatives within fin de siècle Italian literary and journalistic circles Nineteenth Century Italian Women Writers and the Woman Question represents the first monographic volume in English dedicated exclusively to this important Italian woman writer repositioning her within the Italian literary landscape and canon

Into the Fantastical Spaces of Contemporary Japanese Literature Mina Qiao, 2022-03-14 Murakami Haruki Ogawa Yoko Tawada Yoko Kanai Mieko Hino Keizo Murakami Ryu Kawakami Hiromi Murata Sayaka These acclaimed authors are united by a shared fascination with fantastical conceptions of space In highlighting these luminaries of contemporary Japanese literature Into the Fantastical Spaces of Contemporary Japanese Literature examines the role of extramundane topos from an interdisciplinary approach As writers navigate fantastical spaces in resistance to the logic of everyday life they are able to challenge the dualistic norms on the body and mind that typify modern Japanese life These studies demonstrate the essential role played by fantastical spaces in the development of modern Japanese literature to the present day Scholars of Japanese studies literature and other fields will find this book an excellent resource for teaching and research

Drugs and Popular Culture Paul Manning, 2013-01-11 The use of illegal drugs is so common that a number of commentators now refer to the normalisation of drug consumption It is surprising then that to date very little academic work has explored drug use as part of contemporary popular culture This collection of readings will apply an innovative multi disciplinary approach to this theme combining some of the most recent research on the normalisation thesis with fresh work on the relationship between drug use and popular culture In drawing upon criminological sociological and cultural studies approaches this book will make an important contribution to the newly emerging field positioned at the intersection of these disciplines The particular focus of the book is upon drug consumption as popular culture It aims to provide an accessible collection of chapters and readings that will explore drug use in popular culture in a way that is relevant to undergraduates and postgraduates studying a variety of courses including criminology sociology media studies health care and social work

A Womb with a View Laura Tropp, 2013-01-09 Through history interviews anecdotes and popular culture this book examines pregnancy from all angles covering changing expectations for pregnancy new definitions of when fatherhood begins the implications of new earlier connections to the fetus and the political economic and social consequences to the public In the 21st century pregnancy is more than a biological event it's a cultural phenomenon A Womb with a View America's Growing Public Interest in Pregnancy addresses how media influence and changes in society have exposed and commoditized pregnancy like never before while technology has enabled us to share record and preserve all aspects of the pregnancy experience Each chapter of the book focuses on an aspect of the pregnancy experience including efforts to peer in and bond with the fetus the various ways of obtaining advice the evolving role of expectant fathers how pregnancy is depicted and treated in popular culture and branding and marketing to pregnant couples Interviews with those marketing products and services to pregnant women
