Maternity Letters From Working Women The Norton Library:

Maternity Women's Co-operative Guild,1915 Labour Women Pamela M. Graves,1994-02-17 After winning the vote in 1918 many thousands of working class women joined the Labour Party and Co operative Movement This book is about their struggle to find a place in the male world of organised labour politics In the twenties labour women challenged male leaders to give them equal status and support for their reform programmes but the ideas were rejected For most labour women dedication to the class cause far outweighed their desire for power and the struggle for women power was abandoned Consequently despite the common reform agendas of labour women and the middle class feminists of the era a working alliance was never achieved Labour Women uses oral and questionnaire testimony to draw a portrait of grass roots activists It contrasts labour women s failure to win power in the national organisations with their great achievements in community politics poor law administration and municipal government Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1981 Maternity The Right Hon Herbert Samuel,2015-10-22 First published in 1915 The Women s Co Operative Guild founded in 1883 is an auxilliary of the co operative movement in the UK which soon expanded beyond the retail based focus of the movement to organising political campaigns on women s issues including health and suffrage Maternity benefits were includedi n the National Insurance Act 1911 as a result of the Guild s pressure Monographic Series Library of Congress,1980 Researching the Nineteenth-Century Periodical Press Alexis Easley,Andrew King,John Morton,2017-07-14 Extending the work of The Routledge Handbook to Nineteenth Century British Periodicals and Newspapers this volume provides a critical introduction and case studies that illustrate cutting edge approaches to periodicals research as well as an overview of recent developments in the field The twelve chapters model diverse approaches and methodologies for research on nineteenth century periodicals Each case study is contextualized within one of the following broad areas of research single periodicals individual journalists gender issues periodical networks genre the relationship between periodicals transnational transatlantic connections technologies of printing and illustration links within a single periodical topical subjects science and periodicals and imperialism and periodicals Contributors incorporate first person accounts of how they conducted their research and provide specific examples of how they gained access to primary sources as well as the methods they used to analyze the materials The 2018 winner of the Robert and Vineta Colby Scholarly Book Prize The Committee describes the focus of the book on methodology and case studies as fresh and original and useful for both experienced scholars and those new to the field Overall Case Studies suggests new ways of reading canonical authors new understandings of the interpretation of the personal and the public and an admirable energy in engaging with the structures of national and transnational periodical discourses that are clearly implicated in maintaining soft power within societies Brian Maidment Liverpool John Moores University Maternity Women's Co-operative Guild,1980 Birth Notes Jessica Cornwell,2022-05-05 When a woman gives birth she may unwittingly remember violent things Ugly things

Unspoken things After her twins were born Jessica Cornwell stopped feeling Plagued by memories of a traumatic birth wrestling with ongoing physical pain and the brutal demands of caring for two tiny babies she struggled to experience joy and love Instead she was consumed by fear and haunted by recurrent thoughts of blood and danger It was only when she received a diagnosis of post partum PTSD and began therapy that Jessica was able to confront the secrets in her past As she began to understand how her experience of birth had triggered her traumatic memories of sexual assault she was finally able to integrate those memories into her identity as a mother and a survivor and begin to heal A redemptive tale of the power and wisdom of women s bodies Leah Hazard This book undid me and filled me with hope Elinor Cleghorn Magnificent a work of truth understanding scholarship and hope Susie Orbach An astonishing memoir about the intersection between birth trauma and sexual trauma medical misogyny Rhiannon Lucy Cosslett Maternity Guild Women's Co-Operative,1901

The Sexual Politics of Meat - 35th Anniversary Edition Carol J. Adams,2024-12-12 First published in 1990 Carol J Adams revolutionary work has engaged enraged inspired and challenged readers with its exploration of the interplay between society s ingrained cultural misogyny and its obsession with eating animals and masculinity This iconic book referenced in rock songs feminist artwork and even a Law and Order SVU episode continues to change the lives of its readers today Published to celebrate the book s 35th anniversary this Bloomsbury Revelations edition includes a new introduction that reflects on how recent events continue to prove the relevance of this influential work Maternity Women's Co-Operative Guild,2017-10-26 Excerpt from Maternity Letters From Working Women The whole point Of this book lies in the letters which it contains and it might therefore have seemed advisable to leave the reader untroubled by an introduction to gather that point from the letters themselves The material is however in form and in subject Of SO un usual a kind that it has been thought necessary to explain something Of its origin and its authors and even to touch upon some of the problems which the letters so vividly Show to exist About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Books in Print Supplement ,2002 The Sexual Politics of Meat (20th Anniversary Edition) Carol J. Adams,2010-05-27 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Self-Help and Civic Culture Anne B. Rodrick,2019-06-04 First published in 2004 The nineteenth century witnessed a flowering of the culture of self improvement that was reflected in a plethora of institutes societies and journals that sprang up across Britain with the goal of spreading knowledge and learning to a wide spectrum of society The prophets of self improvement believed that not only was self improvement a laudable goal in its own right but more importantly it would contribute towards a general improvement in society In an age in which direct participation in the political processes was restricted to a minority education and self improvement could act as an alternative force by creating a sophisticated and knowledgeable population In other words self improvement was also seen as a way of creating active and responsible citizens Focusing on the city of Birmingham and drawing on both local and national sources Self Help and Civic Culture explores the changing nature of self improvement and citizenship in Victorian Britain By approaching the concept of citizenship from a new perspective provincial identity and its relationship to wider ideas of Englishness and Britishness a distinct ideal of citizenship is elucidated that adds further nuance to current scholarship By drawing together various issues of citizenship self improvement class and political power this work brings a new perspective to the on going attempts to determine who could claim the full rights duties privileges and responsibilities of the larger social body thus illuminating the relationship between culture and power in nineteenth century England Maternity Margaret Llewellyn Davies,1978 The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, Cham-Education of women K Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984 Mothers & Daughters Tillie Olsen,1987 National Union Catalog ,1981 The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, Mae-Pin Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984
