Gu Hongming's Eccentric Chinese Odyssey Chunmei Du, 2019-05-17 Known for his ultraconservatism and eccentricity Gu Hongming 1857 1928 remains one of the most controversial figures in modern Chinese intellectual history A former member of the colonial elite from Penang who was educated in Europe Gu in his late twenties became a Qing loyalist and Confucian spokesman who also defended concubinage footbinding and the queue Seen as a reactionary by his Chinese contemporaries Gu nevertheless gained fame as an Eastern prophet following the carnage of World War I often paired with Rabindranath Tagore and Leo Tolstoy by Western and Japanese intellectuals Rather than resort to the typical conception of Gu as an inscrutable eccentric Chunmei Du argues that Gu was a trickster sage figure who fought modern Western civilization in a time dominated by industrial power utilitarian values and imperialist expansion A shape shifter Gu was by turns a lampooning jester defying modern political and economic systems and at other times an avenging cultural hero who denounced colonial ideologies with formidable intellect symbolic performances and calculated pranks A cultural amphibian Gu transformed from an imitation Western man to a Chinaman again and reinterpreted performed and embodied authentic Chineseness in a time when China itself was adopting the new identity of a modern nation state Gu Hongming's Eccentric Chinese Odyssey is the first comprehensive study in English of Gu Hongming both the private individual and the public cultural figure It examines the controversial scholar's intellectual and psychological journeys across geographical national and cultural boundaries in new global contexts In addition to complicating existing studies of Chinese conservatism and global discussions on civilization around the World War I era the book sheds new light on the contested notion of authenticity within the Chinese diaspora and the psychological impact of colonialism

Singapore Literature and Culture Angelia Poon, Angus Whitehead, 2017-03-03 Since the nation state sprang into being in 1965 Singapore literature in English has blossomed energetically and yet there have been few books focusing on contextualizing and analyzing Singapore literature despite the increasing international attention garnered by Singaporean writers This volume brings Anglophone Singapore literature to a wider global audience for the first time embedding it more closely within literary developments worldwide Drawing upon postcolonial studies Singapore studies and critical discussions in transnationalism and globalization essays unearth and introduce neglected writers cast new light on established writers and examine texts in relation to their specific Singaporean local historical contexts while also engaging with contemporary issues in Singapore society Singaporean writers are producing work informed by debates and trends in queer studies feminism multiculturalism and social justice work which urgently calls for scholarly engagement This groundbreaking collection of essays aims to set new directions for further scholarship in this exciting and various body of writing from a place that despite being just a small red dot on the global map has much to say to scholars and students worldwide interested in issues of nationalism diaspora cosmopolitanism neoliberalism immigration urban space as well as literary form and content This book brings Singapore literature and literary criticism into greater global legibility and charts pathways for future developments Somerset Maugham and the Cinema

Robert Calder,2024-02-13 William Somerset Maugham 1874 1965 was one of the most prominent and productive authors of the twentieth century and his works have been among the most cinematically transformed in history For more than five decades adaptations of his plays stories and novels dominated movie theaters and later television screens More than ninety individual works were filmed and for many filmgoers his name was a greater draw than that of the director Works such as Of Human Bondage The Letter The Painted Veil Rain The Razor's Edge and others were produced multiple times with starring roles sought by actors like Bette Davis Gloria Swanson Greta Garbo Lionel Barrymore Charles Laughton and Bill Murray This study of the famous author explores the relationship between literature and film what is involved in adaptation and how best to judge films based on celebrated books Robert Calder the world's leading scholar of Maugham's work offers fascinating production histories insight into both fortunate and misguided casting decisions shrewd analyses of performances and film techniques and summaries of public and critical responses Maugham's characters were often conflicted iconoclastic and morally out of step with their times which may have accounted for the popularity of his fiction Most of Maugham's works could be adapted to satisfy the tastes of moviegoers and the demands of the Hays Office censors if not the expectations of their author

International Guide to Literature on Masculinity Diederik F. Janssen,2008 International in scope this guide lists references by world region selected nations selected American ethnic minorities and Christianity and Judaism Specific ethnic minorities covered include American Indians African Americans and Asian Americans Eastern Figures Douglas Kerr,2008-06-01 Eastern Figures is a literary history with a difference It examines British writing about the East centred on India but radiating as far as Egypt and the Pacific in the colonial and postcolonial period It takes as its subject the East that was real to the British imagination largely the creation of writers who described and told stories about it descriptions and stories coloured by the experience of empire and its aftermath It is bold in its scope with a centre of gravity in the work of writers like Stevenson Kipling Conrad and Orwell but also covering less well known literary authors and including Anglo Indian romance writing the reports and memoirs of administrators and travel writing from Auden and

Isherwood in China to Redmond O Hanlon in Borneo Eastern Figures produces a history of this writing by looking at a series of figures or tropes of representation through which successive writers sought to represent the East and the British experience of it tropes such as exploring the hinterland going native and the figure of rule itself Eastern Figures is accessible to anyone interested in the literary and cultural history of empire and its aftermath It will be of especial interest to students and scholars of colonial and postcolonial writing as it raises issues of identity and representation power and knowledge and centrally the question of how to represent other people It has original ideas and approaches to offer specialists in literary history of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries cultural historians and researchers in colonial discourse analysis postcolonial studies and Asian area studies and history It is also aimed at students in courses in literature and empire culture and imperialism and cross cultural studies

Monsoon Marketplace Elmo Gonzaga,2023-12-05 Provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed forgotten or refurbished Monsoon Marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial Asian cities across three crucial historical moments Juxtaposing Manila and Singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s Engaging with the work of creators including Nick Joaquin Kevin Kwan and P Ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s Manila languid expatriates in 1930s Singapore street hawkers in 1960s Singapore youthful activists in 1960s Manila call center agents in 2000s Manila and super rich investors in 2000s Singapore Looking at the historical transformation of Calle Escolta Avenida Rizal Raffles Place and Orchard Road it focuses on Crystal Arcade the Manila Carnival the Great World and New World Amusement Parks and Change Alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape Instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic Diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance
