Multatuli's Max Havelaar Fact And Fiction:

Multatuli's Max Havelaar, Fact and Fiction Peter King, 1987 Max Havelaar Multatuli, 2019-03-05 A fierce indictment of colonialism Max Havelaar is a masterpiece of Dutch literature based on the author's own experience as an administrator in the Dutch East Indies in the 1850s A brilliantly inventive fiction that is also a work of burning political outrage Max Havelaar tells the story of a renegade Dutch colonial administrator's ultimately unavailing struggle to end the exploitation of the Indonesian peasantry Havelaar's impassioned exposé is framed by the fatuous reflections of an Amsterdam coffee trader Drystubble into whose hands it has fallen Thus a tale of the jungles and villages of Indonesia is interknit with one of the houses and warehouses of bourgeois Amsterdam where the tidy profits from faraway brutality not only accrue but are counted as a sign of God's grace Multatuli meaning I have suffered greatly was the pen name of Eduard Douwes Dekker and his novel caused a political storm when it came out in Holland Max Havelaar however is as notable for its art as it is for its politics Layering not only different stories but different ways of writing including plays poems lists letters and a wild accumulation of notes to furious hilarious and disconcerting effect this masterpiece of Dutch literature confronts the fixities of power with the protean and subversive energy of the imagination North-south Linkages and Connections in Continental and Diaspora African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2005 This volume collects some of the best lectures at the African Literature Association's 25th annual conference held in 1999 The conference brought together for the first time a large number of scholars creative writers and artists from Northern Africa and their counterparts from Sub Saharan Africa The conference and this collection highlight the inspiring and stimulating dialogue between two literary and cultural areas that have often been artificially compartmentalised The essays draw surprising connections and illustrate the breadth and dynamism of African literature Max Havelaar Multatuli, Alex Struik, 2012-09-05 Max Havelaar Or the Coffee Auctions of the Dutch Trading Company is a culturally and socially significant 1860 novel by Multatuli the pen name of Eduard Douwes Dekker which was to play a key role in shaping and modifying Dutch colonial policy in the Dutch East Indies in the nineteenth and early twentieth century In the novel the protagonist Max Havelaar tries to battle against a corrupt government system in Java which was a Dutch colony at the time Eduard Douwes Dekker 2 March 1820 19 February 1887 better known by his pen name Multatuli from Latin multa tuli I have suffered much was a Dutch writer famous for his satirical novel Max Havelaar 1860 which denounced the abuses of colonialism in the Dutch East Indies today's Indonesia

On the Eighteenth Century as a Category of Asian History Leonard Blussé, Femme S Gaastra, 2016-12-05 The starting point of this volume is the scathing attack far reaching in its consequences launched in 1942 by J C van Leur on the views then current on the character and significance of the 18th century as a category in Asian history His denial of European pre eminence in Asian waters represented a direct attack on colonial historiography The essays here derive from an international conference held 50 years later to assess the impact of van Leur's work In part historiographic in part drawing on new research they aim to delimit the boundaries of European Asian interaction and to provide case studies of what this period actually meant for the history of South and East Asia

Dutch Literature and Culture in an Age of Transition Thomas Frederic Shannon, Johan P. Snapper, 2007 Cultural Criticism in the Netherlands, 1933-1940 Jacob Boas, 2020-08-17 In Cultural Criticism in the Netherlands 1933-40 Jacob Boas offers a broad selection of the newspaper columns of legendary Dutch cultural critic Menno ter Braak. Ter Braak's columns are noteworthy not only for their distinctive treatment of disparate cultural components ranging from literature to the social sciences but also for the light they throw on the extent to which politics intruded on the cultural sphere in the years prior to the outbreak of war. Ter Braak set a standard for literary criticism of surpassing quality. Moreover, a staunch advocate of democracy, the critic joined the battle against fascism, urging fellow intellectuals to rise to the occasion. The conscience of Dutch letters killed himself on the eve of the German occupation, May 1940.
