The Choir Loft Murders Janet McCanless, 2012-12-14 They are back that delightful bunch of folks from coastal North Carolina in this the last of the series of Beryls Cove mysteries. Steve and Suzanne Thomas are in their mountain retreat when someone is killing the choir master and choir members of the local congregational church of Ridgeville. Because the first murder occurred in the Nest O Rest Lodge just up the path from the Thomas home, naturally our heroes are going to be involved. Steve's best friend from Navy days is visiting his sister's lodge and is called upon to help with the investigation and add his own special insights and zaniness to the proceedings. When two more murder victims show up, the plot thickens with a twist that sends the town reeling. Gregg and Steve need all the help they can get. When the hometown gang from the Cove show up for the 4th of July festivities, more adventure ensues when they end up stranded late at night on the Blue Ridge Parkway. Things are never quite settled even when our two amateur sleuths return home; there is unfinished business and some shady dealings afoot. Come along for this final raucous adventure with the two best amateur detectives the old North State ever saw. Laugh and cry along with the citizens of Beryls Cove and of course Elvis and that donut munching bulldog Dawg are here to add their own special touch to the story. Death in the Choir Loft Richard L. Baldwin, 2013-05

The choir director and organist Belle Franklin is the last person to see him alive, landing her at the top of the suspect list. The Rosebush Murders Ruth Shidlo, 2012-10-31 In this second Helen Mirkin novel, upon her return to Tel Aviv, Detective Inspector Helen Mirkin is tasked with finding opera singer Araceli Pena, who uncharacteristically has missed two Wozzeck rehearsals before opening night. When she is found dead in bed, the circumstances of her death are far from clear. The investigation takes DI Mirkin behind the scenes to the mercurial world of the annual Opera Music Workshop, rife with competition and backstabbing among the singer's colleagues, many of whom dream of being awarded the Seagram Grant to study under the best coaches New York can offer. When the meteoric composer Israel Berger is shot dead shortly thereafter, the stakes are even higher for DI Mirkin as the music world she cherishes seems to be under attack. Are the two deaths related? Can the Opera Music Workshop survive?
