However, for other people, January may be one of the hardest months of the year. The days are short and cold, the holiday period is over, people often don't have much money left after spending too much in December, and everyone is getting used to their normal routine again. For anyone who isn't a fan of routines, this time of year can be quite difficult.

In 1991, the idea of 'Blue Monday' was born. It is usually the third Monday of January which is said to be the most depressing day of the year.
