Money Shot Cinema Sin And Censorship:

The Money Shot Jane Mills, 2001 Iconoclastic analysis of Australian cinema based on rejection of censorship and the author's passion for popular culture Volume in the media culture series edited by McKenzie Wark Based on reworkings of texts previously delivered as talks or published as papers Incorporates etymologies from the author's Womanwords and Sexwords Includes photos endnotes filmography bibliography and index Author is Associate Senior Research Fellow at the Australian Film Television and Radio School a documentary film maker author and a founder member of Watch on Censorship

Community, Space and Online Censorship Scott Beattie, 2016-05-23 Internet censorship is a controversial topic while the media periodically sounds alarms at the dangers of online life the uncontrollable nature of the internet makes any kind of pervasive regulatory control impossible This book compares the Australian solution a set of laws which have been criticized as being both draconian and ineffectual to major regulatory systems in the UK and US and understanding what drives them The impossibility of internet regulation opens deeper issues what do we mean by regulation and how do we judge the certainty and effectiveness of law These questions lead to an exploration of the theories of legal geography which provide tools to understand and evaluate regulatory practices The book will be a valuable guide for academics students and policy makers working in media and censorship law those from a civil liberties interest and people interested in internet theory generally

Derivative Rights, Moral Rights, and Movie Filtering Technology United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Courts, the Internet, and Intellectual Property, 2004

The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary Media Gwyn Symonds, 2011-11-03 The topic of violence in the media seems as inundated as can be Countless studies and research projects have been conducted mostly to show its negative effects on society What Gwynneth Symonds proposes though takes this significant topic one step further studying the aesthetics of media violence By defining key terms like the graphic nature and authenticity of violent representations and discussing how those definitions are linked to actual violence outside the film and television screen Symonds broadens the arena of study Engagingly written The Aesthetics of Violence in Contemporary Media fills an important gap Symonds uses existing studies for the empirical audience reception data together with discussions of the different representations of violence to look at violence in the media as an art form in of itself By looking at The Simpsons Bowling for Columbine and Norma Khouri's Forbidden Love just to name a few Symonds cross analyzes violence in multiple media to see their affective role in audience reception an important aspect when discussing media The book strikes a balance between the readers need to see how theory matches what actually happens in the texts in question and the demands of a theoretical overview

After Taste: Cultural Value and the Moving Image Julia Vassilieva, Constantine Verevis, 2014-01-02 In the wake of the debates over high low culture distinction spilling into the effective dismantling of the boundary that once separated them the past decade has seen the explosion of bad taste production on screen Starting with paracinema or badfilm a movement that has grown up around sleazy excessive or poorly executed B movies and has come to encompass disreputable and unworthy films this trend has been evident in various formats on television and in video art low budget and straight to TV films amateur and home movies The proliferation of trash on screen can be seen as delivering the final blow to the vexed issue of taste More importantly it prompts a reconsideration of some critical issues surrounding production circulation understanding and teaching of bad objects in the media This collection of essays written by international film and television scholars provides detailed critical analysis of the issues surrounding judgements of cultural value and taste feeling and affect cultural morals and politics research methodologies and teaching strategies in the new landscape of after taste media Addressing global and local developments from global Hollywood to Australian indigenous film and television through auteurs Sergei Eisenstein to Jerry Bruckheimer on to examples such as Twilight to Sukiyaki Western Django the essays in this book offer a range of critical tools for understanding the recent shifts affecting cultural aesthetic and political value of the moving image This book was originally published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media Cultural Studies

Screening the Marquis de Sade Lindsay Anne Hallam, 2014-01-10 Since their publication the works of the Marquis de Sade have challenged the reading public with a philosophy of relentless physical transgression This is the first book length academic study by a single author that applies the philosophy of the Marquis de Sade to the analysis of a wide array of film texts By employing Sade's controversial body oriented philosophy within film analysis this book provides a new understanding of notions of pain pleasure and the representation of the transgressive body in film Whereas many analyses have used theory to excuse and thus dilute the power of sexual and violent images the author has here sought to examine cinematic representations of human relations as unflinchingly as Sade did in his novels

Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand Ben Goldsmith, Geoff Lealand, 2010-12-15 This addition to Intellect's Directory of World Cinema series turns the spotlight on Australia and New Zealand and offers an in depth and exciting look at the cinema produced in these two countries since the turn of the twentieth century Though the two nations share considerable cultural and economic connections their film industries remain distinct marked by differences of scale level of government involvement and funding and relations with other countries and national cinemas Through essays about prominent genres and themes profiles of directors and comprehensive reviews of significant titles this user friendly guide explores the diversity and distinctiveness of films from Australia and New Zealand from Whale Rider to The Piano to Wolf Creek

Pervasive Perversions Charles Jason Peter Lee, 2005 During the 1980s discourse concerning child sexual abuse became central to the US UK media and in the 1990s popular culture frequently took child sexual abuse as a subject for representation Pervasive Perversions analyses a range of media and popular culture texts concerned with child sexual abuse p 4 of cover

Censoring Hollywood Aubrey Malone, 2011-10-10 Censorship has been an ongoing issue from the early days of filmmaking One hundred years of film censorship encompassing the entire 20th century are chronicled in this work The freewheeling nature of films in the early decades was profoundly affected by

Prohibition the Depression and the formation of the Legion of Decency culminating in a new age of restrictiveness in the movies Such powerful arbiters of public taste as Will H Hays of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America and Joseph Breen of the Production Code Association fomented an era whereby films with contentious material were severely censored or even condemned This held sway until rebellious filmmakers like Otto Preminger challenged the system in the 1950s eventually resulting in the abandonment of the old regime in favor of the contemporary G through NC 17 ratings system Media International Australia ,2003 BFI Film and Television Handbook 2003 Eddie Dyja,2002-12-01 No
