Twayne's World Authors Series, 1970 Montaigne Marcel Tetel, 1974 The A to Z of the Renaissance Charles G. Nauert, 2006-02-23 Few periods have given civilization such a strong impulse as the Renaissance which started in Italy and then spread to the rest of Europe During its brief epoch most vigorously from the fourteen to the sixteenth centuries Europe reached back to Ancient Greece and Rome and pushed ahead in numerous fields art architecture literature philosophy banking commerce religion politics and warfare This era is inundated with famous names Da Vinci Michelangelo Raphael Petrarch Machiavelli Cervantes and Shakespeare and the heritage it left can hardly be overestimated The A to Z of the Renaissance provides information on these fields through its chronology which traces events from 1250 to 1648 and its introduction delineating the underlying features of the period However it is the dictionary section with hundreds of cross referenced entries on famous persons from Adrian to Zwingli key locations supporting political and social institutions wars religious reformations achievements and failures which is the heart of this book Further research is facilitated by the bibliography Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1975 Desperate in Saint Martin Notes on Guillaume Coppier Gerard M. Hunt, 2012-10-11 This book on Guillaume Coppier 1606 1674 the early 17th century French traveler indentured servant colonist mariner moralist baroque chronicler antiquarian humanist sometime pirate and slaver of sorts is essentially a reading of Coppier the man and his chronicle Coppiers Histoire et voyage des Indes Occidentales et de plusieurs autres rgions maritimes it is a sort of voyage and a long one at that □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□, 1986 New Directions in Emblem Studies Amy Wygant, 1999 Books in Series, 1979 Renaissance Et Réforme, 1976 Dogs' Tales Hugh Roberts, 2006-01-01 Sleeping rough having sex in public and insulting the most powerful men in the world earned the ancient Cynic or dog philosophers fame and infamy in antiquity and beyond This book reveals that French Renaissance texts feature a rich and varied set of responses to the Dogs including especially Diogenes of Sinope 4th century B C whose life was a subversive performance combining wisdom and wisecracks Cynicism is a special case in the renewal of interest in ancient philosophy at this time owing to its transmission through jokes and anecdotes The Cynics curious combination of seduction and sedition goes a long way to account for both the excitement and the tension that they generate in Renaissance texts Responses to the extreme and deliberately marginal philosophical stance of the Dogs cast light back on the mainstream revealing cultural attitudes tensions and uncertainties Above all representations of Cynicism constitute a site for the exploration of strange and paradoxical ideas in playful and humorous ways This is true of both major writers including Erasmus Rabelais and Montaigne and of dozens of other less well known but fascinating figures This book will be of interest to students and scholars of intellectual and literary history Early Modern Women and Transnational Communities of Letters Julie D. Campbell, Anne R. Larsen, 2009 Offering a comparative and international approach to early modern women s writing the essays gathered here focus on multiple literatures across Italy France England and the Low Countries

Individual essays investigate women in diverse social classes and life stages ranging from siblings and mothers to nuns to celebrated writers The collection overall is invested in crossing geographic linguistic political and religious borders and in exploring familial political and religious communities

Pleasure and Leisure in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, 2019-08-05 Jan Huizinga and Roger Caillois have already taught us to realize how important games and play have been for pre modern civilization Recent research has begun to acknowledge the fundamental importance of these aspects in cultural religious philosophical and literary terms This volume expands on the traditional approach still very much focused on the materiality of game toys cards dice falcons dolls etc and acknowledges that game constituted also a form of coming to terms with human existence in an unstable and volatile world determined by universal randomness and fortune Whether considering blessings or horse fighting falconry or card games playing with dice or dolls we can gain a much deeper understanding of medieval and early modern society when we consider how people pursued pleasure and how they structured their leisure time The contributions examine a wide gamut of approaches to pleasure considering health issues eroticism tournaments playing music reading and listening drinking alcohol gambling and throwing dice This large issue was also relevant of course in non Christian societies and constitutes a critical concern both for the past and the present because we are all homines ludentes
