Monas Hieroglyphica:

Monas Hieroglyphica John Dee, 2015-12-03 Named after his esoteric symbol thought to be the basis of his magic the Monas Hieroglyphica is the ultimate work of the 14th century sorcerer John Dee An esoteric work of seemingly rambling significance the Monas Hieroglyphica outlines the concept of Enochian magic and the theories that Dee used in his spells Dive into the hermetic world of John Dee's study and find out the truth behind his station as a magician Hailed by many as one of the most influential works in all of hermetic and esoteric study the Monas Hieroglyphica is one of the most unique and mystifying works in all of history The Hieroglyphic Monad John Dee, 2000-08-13 Written in thirteen days in 1564 by the renowned Elizabethan magus Dr John Dee The Hieroglyphic Monad explains his discovery of the monas or unity underlying the universe as expressed in a hieroglyph or symbol Dee called The Hieroglyphic Monad a magical parable based on the Doctrine of Correspondences which lies at the heart of all magical practice and is the key to the hermetic quest Through careful meditation and study of the glyph its secrets may be slowly revealed John Dee's Natural Philosophy Nicholas Clulee, 2013-02-15 This is the definitive study of John Dee and his intellectual career Originally published in 1988 this interpretation is far more detailed than any that came before and is an authoritative account for anyone interested in the history literature and scientific developments of the Renaissance or the occult John Dee has fascinated successive generations Mathematician scientist astrologer and magus at the court of Elizabeth I he still provokes controversy To some he is the genius whose contributions to navigation made possible the feats of Elizabethan explorers and colonists to others an alchemist and charlatan Thoroughly examining Dee's natural philosophy this book provides a balanced evaluation of his place and the role of the occult in sixteenth century intellectual history It brings together insights from a study of Dee's writings the available biographical material and his sources as reflected in his extensive library and more importantly numerous surviving annotated volumes from it John Dee's Occultism Gyorgy E. Szonyi, 2004-01-01 A comprehensive look at the life and work of one of the towering figures of Renaissance mysticism John Dee: Interdisciplinary Studies in English Renaissance Thought Stephen Clucas, 2006-06-18 Intellectual History and the Identity of John Dee In April 1995 at Birkbeck College University of London an interdisciplinary colloquium was held so that scholars from diverse fields and areas of expertise could exchange views on the life and work of John Dee Working in a variety of fields intellectual history history of navigation history of medicine history of science history of mathematics bibliography and manuscript studies we had all been drawn to Dee by particular aspects of his work and participating in the colloquium was to confront other narratives about Dee's career an experience which was both bewildering and instructive Perhaps more than any other intellectual figure of the English Renaissance Dee has been fragmented and dispersed across numerous disciplines and the various attempts to re-integrate his multiplied image by reference to a particular world view or philosophical outlook have failed to bring him into focus This volume records the diversity of scholarly approaches to John Dee which have emerged since the synthetic accounts of I R F Calder Frances Yates and Peter French If these approaches have not succeeded in resolving the problematic multiplicity of Dee s activities they will at least deepen our understanding of specific and local areas of his intellectual life and render them more historiographically legible

The Hieroglyphic Monad John Dee,James Orchard-Halliwel,2016-01-21 The Monas Hieroglyphica or Hieroglyphic Monad is an esoteric symbol invented and designed by John Dee the Elizabethan Magician and Court Astrologer of Elizabeth I of England In 1564 at the age of 37 Dee wrote the Monas Hieroglyphica as an interpretation or commentary on the symbol which is meant to express the unity of all creation According to legend Dee wrote the manuscript in twelve days while in a mystical state I am the pen merely of God Dee said whose Spirit quickly writing these things through me I wish and I hope to be He claimed it would revolutionize astronomy alchemy mathematics linguistics mechanics music optics magic and adeptship He traveled to Hungary to present a copy of it to Maximilian II the Holy Roman Emperor This edition includes the remnants of Dee s diary written primarily on the backs of old Almanacs and edited with footnotes by James Orchard Halliwell and also the catalog made of the manuscripts that were in his possession The diary has been formatted for easy readability and contains subject matter ranging from the daily minutia of paying servants to Dee s self treatments for his kidney stones to luncheons with famous historical figures and there is even a mention of a strange spiritual creature roaming about the house

Disknowledge Katherine Eggert,2015-10-02 Disknowledge knowing something isn t true but believing it anyway In Disknowledge Literature Alchemy and the End of Humanism in Renaissance England Katherine Eggert explores the crumbling state of learning in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Even as the shortcomings of Renaissance humanism became plain to see many intellectuals of the age had little choice but to treat their familiar knowledge systems as though they still held Humanism thus came to share the status of alchemy a way of thinking simultaneously productive and suspect reasonable and wrongheaded Eggert argues that English writers used alchemy to signal how to avoid or camouflage pressing but discomfiting topics in an age of rapid intellectual change Disknowledge describes how John Donne George Herbert Henry Vaughan John Dee Christopher Marlowe William Harvey Helkiah Crooke Edmund Spenser and William Shakespeare used alchemical imagery rhetoric and habits of thought to shunt aside three difficult questions how theories of matter shared their physics with Roman Catholic transubstantiation how Christian Hermeticism depended on Jewish Kabbalah and how new anatomical learning acknowledged women s role in human reproduction Disknowledge further shows how Shakespeare Ben Jonson and Margaret Cavendish used the language of alchemy to castigate humanism for its blind spots and to invent a new posthumanist mode of knowledge writing fiction Covering a wide range of authors and topics Disknowledge is the first book to analyze how English Renaissance literature employed alchemy to probe the nature and limits of learning The concept of disknowledge willfully adhering to something we know is wrong resonates across literary and cultural studies as an urgent issue of our own era Roots of Coded

Metaphor in John Dee's Monas Hieroglyphica Joshua Michael Zintel, 2020 An enormous amount of research on John Dee has materialized within the last forty years Contrary to research published earlier in the twentieth century such relatively recent studies have considered Dee's idiosyncratic plurality of parallel traditions instead of trying to pigeonhole his activities into one of several discrete camps That research much of which is listed in the Bibliography has been helpful hypothesizing what his Monas Hieroglyphica 1564 may mean for several fields of study in an interstitial capacity Students of Early Modern mathematics neoplatonism and the histories of alchemy chemistry Christian kabbalah and astronomy are among the many diverse subjects to which the Monas speaks through its obscure references Dee's claim that his sacred art of writing can unify and even supersede the boundaries of disciplines is predicated on poesis or poetic constructive readings of hieroglyphics using geometrical forms letter shapes and numerical values which are assigned signification in a bank of poetic spiritual meanings Using the mathematical substructures of the Monas which carry hieroglyphic meanings coded and compacted meanings readers may unfold and lift anagogical readings of new relationships between animated elements in motion seen through dynamic cognitive registry new literary and visual relationships which join with their own preconceived bank of significations to create novel unions of localized personal meaning and poetic insight While extant literature directly addresses the Monas intertextual references to alchemy mathematics and theology among others this paper seeks to consider a wide base of generalized semiotics of the period and its roots in the emblematic and hieroglyphics traditions of Europe In doing so it seeks to comment upon less well known field relations between hieroglyphics and the Monas for a wider readership in cultural studies facilitating more specialized readings made available in the Bibliography for those interested The present study begins by introducing the Renaissance semiotics of hieroglyphics which developed in the wake of publications of Horapollo's Hieroglyphica a fifth century text discovered at Andros in 1419 and taken to Florence for translation and wide publication resulting in significant cultural adoption Next the terms and concepts of Gyrgy Sznyi exaltatio and Hkan Hkansson symbolic exegesis via James Bono are contextualized to help frame later inquiry into the Monas claims of instigating a metamorphosis After reviewing their related literature a short summary and analysis of Renaissance hieroglyphics centers the theoretical framework of the Monas use of coded and compressed iconographies and exploitations of symbolism in cultural circulation at Dee's time After discussing Sznyi and Hkansson I observe how the Hermetic and Kabbalistic soul ascension concepts of Marsilio Ficino and Giovanni Pico of the Neoplatonic Florentine Academy are central sources of Dee's mystical repertoire in his hieroglyphic construction of the Arbor Raritatis the Tree of Rarity depicted in the Monas dedicatory letter to Emperor Maximilian II. I argue that the Arbor Raritatis a hieroglyphic figure introduces the reader to Dee's first use of the term hieroglyphic a key point which this paper further argues as setting an explicit record of how he expects the reader to interpret the rest of the Monas in lights of specialized knowledge. While the rich array of research from which this paper is drawn does a fine job of exploring the Monas in relation to specialized fields the present work offers readers unfamiliar with the Monas a basic but crucial launching point of understanding how it relates to Renaissance hieroglyphics without having to be experts in alchemy astronomy geometry and the several other subjects it references. In the end readers may garner new understandings of how Dee characterizes metaphorical insight from literary and mathematical semblances in the Monas and how his Early Modern mind articulated its aha and eureka moments with the Monas as holy illuminations.

A Translation of John Dee's "Monas Hieroglyphica" (Antwerp, 1564) John Dee, 1964

Sacred Symbol of Oneness by John Dee of London John Dee, James Alan Egan, 2014-09-02 This English translation of John Dee's Monas Hieroglyphica is a companion piece to John Dee's original Latin published by James Alan Egan. As some of John Dee's cryptic clues get lost in translation it's useful to study both versions. To simplify cross referencing this English translation mirrors the layout and design of the original Latin version. In other words both this translation and the original have the feel of John Dee's original work except for a few minor differences. Dee's original printed in Antwerp in 1564 had a stapled binding whereas this version has a perfect binding with a spine. Also the cover of the original Latin version the same thickness as the paper stock of its interior pages.
