Monday Marriage Gerald W. Kaufman, L. Marlene Kaufman, 2005      Necessary Conversations Gerald Kaufman, 2015-01-27 In this timely book family counselors Gerald and Marlene Kaufman urge adult children and their parents to have direct conversations about the decisions that lie ahead as parents age The Kaufmans suggest that families use their parents retirement as the benchmark for having the first discussion about their parents plans for the next phase of their lives The Kaufmans point out that most families wait until they are faced with a crisis before having these conversations The big questions facing aging adults are 1 Where should they live as they become less able to care for a property 2 How will they manage their finances so that they are as prepared as possible to meet their needs as they age Are they ready to invite one or more of their children to become their partners in making financial decisions 3 Are they ready to invite one or more of their children to become their partners in making their medical decisions 4 How can parents and children work together in determining when it is no longer safe or wise for the parents to drive 5 What end of life decisions should parents be prepared to make What is the best way to have those discussions Necessary Conversations is filled with stories and examples from many families most with different life circumstances but all facing these same issues The chapters end with Getting Started a list of suggestions for action as well as Questions for focusing on practical outcomes to the discussions The book includes a series of exhibits from a Needs Assessment for Caregivers to a Medications and Supplements List to a Driving Contract and Checklist A thoughtful and useful guide to a life stage that is often dreaded and muddled through Gerald W Kaufman and L Marlene Kaufman have been family counselors for nearly 40 years This book grew out of a seminar they were asked to lead with their adult daughter and her husband      Report of the trial of Madeleine Smith ... for the alleged poisoning of P.
