Church, 2023 This year's volume is made up of articles that were presented at the conference in Bonn held under the auspices of the University Women in English Life from Mediaeval to Modern Times Georgiana Hill, 1896 Die Kreuzfahrerstaaten als multikulturelle Gesellschaft Hans Eberhard Mayer, 1997 Das internationale besetzte Kolloquium vom September 1994 widmete sich einem zuvor vernachlässigten Thema Es ist eine wesentliche Erkenntnis des Kolloquiums da die Einwanderung die hier untersucht wird für den Adel die Kirche die Zentralverwaltung die Wirtschaft und die Kunst die Kreuzfahrerstaaten vor intellektueller und kultureller Versteinerung bewahrte und sie auf der Höhe der europäischen Entwicklung hielt Bei den Minderheiten zeigen mehrere Beiträge die Schwierigkeiten im Zusammenleben mit den lateinischen Eroberern mit denen man trotz aller Abneigung zu fragilen Symbiosen kommen musste Outrageous Women of the Middle Ages Vicki León, 1998-03-04 Some were feisty and fiery Others were cool and dangerous All were incredibly courageous Outrageous Women of The Middle Ages took on the challenge of their world and didn't worry about ruffling a few feathers Among the outrageous women you'll meet are Eleanor of Aquitaine queen of France and later England she led a group of women on the Second Crusade and created her own financial system Lady Murasaki Shikibu besides being a wife and mother she learned the forbidden language of Chinese and wrote the world's first novel A Tale of Two Cities a wise woman and explorer who led her clan grandchildren and all on a risky voyage from Scotland to Iceland Hildegard of Bingen the German nun who late in life became a composer a botanist and founded convents Damiana al Kahina a nomadic freedom fighter skilled at peacemaking and war who kept her North African homeland free The Haskins Society Journal 34 Person William North, Contributor Laura E Wangerin, 2024-10-08 Essays illuminating a wide range of topics from Cistercian preachers and the geography of purgatory to royal and ecclesiastical justice and power This volume continues the Society's commitment to historical and interdisciplinary research from the early and central Middle Ages and demonstrates its belief that the close interrogation of primary documents yields new insights into or important recalibrations of our understanding of the past It begins by surveying the works of the Greek Fathers rendered into Latin in late antiquity exploring their reception and deployment in England before the conquest The twelfth century occupies a central place in this volume Four papers offer close readings or re readings of key authors or sources one reconstructs William of Malmesbury's journeys in the mid 1130s another offers a new reading of two of Aelred of Rievaulx's royal biographies a third considers the influence of Henry of Marcy on Herbert of Clairvaux's Liber visionum et miraculorum Clarevallensium and a fourth examines the Historia Gaufredi Ducis and its outsized impact on the history of the ritual of dubbing Two papers address royal and ecclesiastical justice in mid thirteenth century France through meticulous work with archival sources they respectively consider the case of Geoffroy de Milly and limits of sovereign authority and enquetes as a technique of power Further topics include the emerging geography of purgatory in the imagination of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries the different dimensions of medieval institutional culture as seen in the intersection of earthly and angelic power in Angevin England placed in dialogue with American medieval historiography and the evolving historiographical treatment of men of the Church employed as trusted administrators by Italian communes The volume concludes with two essays on significant moments in the history of American medieval studies examinations of the publication history of Evelyn Faye Wilson's Stella Maris of John of Garland and of the life scholarship and legacy of Bennett David Hill round out the volume

After Many Generations John Leslie Harris, 2006      England's Last War Against France Colin Smith, 2009 Most people think that England's last war with France involved point blank broadsides from sailing ships and breastplated Napoleonic cavalry charging red coated British infantry But there was a much more recent conflict than this It went on for over two years and cost several thousand lives Under the terms of its armistice with Nazi Germany the unoccupied part of France and its substantial colonies were ruled from the spa town of Vichy by the government of Marshal Philip Petain the victor of Verdun one of the bloodiest battles of the First World War Between July 1940 and November 1942 while Britain was at war with Germany Italy and ultimately Japan it also fought land sea and air battles with the considerable forces at the disposal of Petain's Vichy French When the Royal Navy sank the French Fleet at Mers El Kebir almost 1 300 French sailors died in what was the 20th century's most one sided sea battle British casualties were nil In the House of Commons MPs greeted Churchill's brutal resolve not to risk the warships of their very recent ally falling into German hands with cheers and threw their order papers in the air It is a wound that has still not healed for undoubtedly these events are better remembered in France than in Britain Despite the appalling losses on both sides the war the British and eventually the Americans fought against France in 1940-42 has never been written about as an entity An embarrassment at the time its maritime massacre and the bitter hard fought campaigns that followed rarely make more than footnotes in accounts of Allied operations against Axis forces Until now
