men he fought in the ring Brennan located former opponents for a special feature that ran over several pages in Sports Illustrated to discover for himself where these great athletes ended up Around 1978 I had been in Houston Texas photographing former Ali opponent George Foreman who had then reinvented himself as a roadside preacher On the plane back to NYC I thought if that's what George is doing I wonder what the rest of his opponents are up to I set out to track down as many of the old guys as I could find I really had no idea what I was going to do with the project My first old opponent was coincidentally Ali's very first professional opponent a man called Tunney Hunsaker He was at that time the Police Chief of Fayetteville West Virginia After finding eight or nine guys through a friend I pitched the idea to a guy called Gil Rogin then the Editor of Sports Illustrated I'm not exaggerating when I say he was all over it immediately He then commissioned me to track down many more Willie Besmanoff who fought Ali in 1961 became a youth counsellor George Logan who lost in a technical knockout in 1962 became a school truancy officer When Brennan took photos of Joe Frazier in 1979 he was performing as a cabaret singer Frazier fought Ali three times winning the first fight in a famed Madison Square Garden match in 1971 but later lost in 1974 and 1975 Buster Mathis who lost in 1971 went on to load trucks George Foreman who lost by a knockout in the 8th round in 1974 reinvented himself as a roadside preacher in 1978 This unique book is a look through Brennan's archive with a spotlight on the 1970s It will contain several never before seen photos With text throughout by Michael Brennan including his original 1981 Sports Illustrated essay this is an eye opening and fascinating account of Ali and the men who challenged him in the ring This edition also includes a special introductory essay by the late great Jimmy Breslin
