Muhammad In The Modern Egyptian Popular Ballad:

Muhammad in the Modern Egyptian Popular Ballad Kamal Abdel-Malek,2023-12-14 This volume is a fascinating interpretative study of the life of the Prophet Muhammad as depicted in the repertoire of fifty one contemporary Egyptian singers The repertoire is extremely diverse and ranges from narrative ballads classical odes and Qurnic chantings to melodies of the secular songs of well known Egyptian singers The people's Muhammad appears as both a commanding figure empowered by the supernatural and a touchingly vulnerable human being and provides this study with excellent material for its discussion of a subject that has not received much serious scholarly attention to date

Arabic Literature in the Post-Classical Period Roger Allen,D. S. Richards,2006-04-13 The final volume of The Cambridge History of Arabic Literature explores the Arabic literary heritage of the little known period from the twelfth to the beginning of the nineteenth century Even though it was during this time that the famous Thousand and One Nights was composed very little has been written on the literature of the period generally In this volume Roger Allen and Donald Richards bring together some of the most distinguished scholars in the field to rectify the situation The volume is divided into parts with the traditions of poetry and prose covered separately within both their elite and popular contexts The last two sections are devoted to drama and the indigenous tradition of literary criticism As the only work of its kind in English covering the post classical period this book promises to be a unique resource for students and scholars of Arabic literature for many years to come
