Multiculturalism in Education and Teaching Carl A. Grant, 2014-11-13 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key article salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Carl A Grant has spent the last 35 years researching teaching thinking and writing about some of the key enduring issues in multicultural education He has contributed to a multitude of books and articles and is former President of the National Association for Multicultural Education In his selected works Carl Grant brings together 14 of his key writings in one place Starting with a specially written Introduction which gives an overview of his career and contextualises his selection within the development of the field the book is divided into three parts Race and Educational Equity Theorizing Multicultural Education Multicultural Teacher Education This book not only shows how Carl Grant s thinking developed during his long and distinguished career it also gives an insight into the development of the fields to which he contributed

The Art of Effective Facilitation Lisa M. Landreman, 2023-07-03 Co published with How can I apply learning and social justice theory to become a better facilitator Should I prepare differently for workshops around specific identities How do I effectively respond when things aren t going as planned This book is intended for the increasing number of faculty and student affairs administrators at whatever their level of experience who are being asked to become social justice educators to prepare students to live successfully within and contribute to an equitable multicultural society It will enable facilitators to create programs that go beyond superficial discussion of the issues to fundamentally address the structural and cultural causes of inequity and provide students with the knowledge and skills to work for a more just society Beyond theory design techniques and advice on practice the book concludes with a section on supporting student social action The authors illuminate the art and complexity of facilitation describe multiple approaches and discuss the necessary and ongoing reflection process What sets this book apart is how the authors illustrate these practices through personal narratives of challenges encountered and by admitting to their struggles and mistakes They emphasize the need to prepare by taking into account such considerations as the developmental readiness of the participants and the particular issues and historical context of the campus before designing and facilitating a social justice training or selecting specific exercises They pay particular attention to the struggle to teach the goals of social justice education in a language that can be embraced by the general public and to connect its structural and contextual analyses to real issues inside and outside the classroom The book is informed by the recognition that the magic is almost never in the exercise or the handout but instead is in the facilitation and by the authors commitment to help educators identify and analyze dehumanizing processes on their campuses and in society at large reflect on their own socialization and engage in proactive strategies to dismantle oppression Asian

American Reference Data Directory R.J. Associates,1976      Narrating Chinese Youth Mobilities He Zhang,Qian Gong,2024-07-05 This book presents the first major initiative to introduce workshop based Digital Storytelling to digitally dynamic and engaged youth both in China and internationally Conceived nearly three decades ago the participatory and creative practice of Digital Storytelling has been embraced by public institutions advocates and researchers as a media democratisation intervention that empowers non professionals to actively contribute to the media Drawing on data from ten workshops conducted with Chinese young migrants in Australia and China this work investigates the extent to which Chinese youth s participation in Digital Storytelling constitutes media citizenship in both home and destination societies The findings show that their digital self expressions construct alternative stories that resist dominant discourses of place mobility education and language This book provides nuanced insights into the experiences of young educational migrants through bottom up autobiographical narratives As the first major study of its kind after decades of China s reform era it sheds light on Chinese society from a unique perspective on the interrelationships between state mandated subjectivity personal aspirations and digitally mediated narrativity The title will be of value to professionals in the field of Digital Storytelling and will also appeal to students and scholars interested in Chinese youth culture educational mobility media citizenship digital literacy and Chinese migration
