Rodeño Iturriaga, 2021-02-19 Acclaimed by many as one of the most gifted essayists and stylists in American letters these last few decades Richard Rodriguez has left an indelible imprint on the tradition of autobiographical writing of the nation Rodeno's study of the four installments of Rodriguez's self-writing offers an insightful and perspicacious analysis of the evolution and the most controversial elements in this Chicano writer's production so far Delving deeply into issues of racial and ethnic identity sexual orientation religious background various types of hybridity and different forms of socio-cultural adaptation this book presents all kinds of incisive observations about the contested spaces that minority self-writers are often pushed to occupy in the American tradition of the genre International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i.e. the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
