John A Saliba, 2004-09-08 Discussions of any religion can easily raise passions But arguments tend to become even more heated when the religion under discussion is characterized as new Divisions around the study of new religious movements NRMs or cults or nontraditional or alternative or emergent religions are so acute that there is even controversy over what to call them John Saliba strives to bring balance to these discussions by offering perspectives on new religions from different academic perspectives history psychology sociology law theology and counseling This approach provides rich descriptions of a broad range of movements while demonstrating how the differing aims of the disciplines can create much of the controversy around NRMs The new second edition has been updated and revised throughout and includes a new foreword by noted historian of religion J Gordon Melton For classes in religion or the social sciences or for interested individuals Understanding New Religious Movements offers the most objective introduction possible Spirituality, Education & Society Njoki N. Wane, Energy L. Manyimo, Eric J. Ritskes, 2011-10-29 Spirituality education and society An integrated approach argues the value of spirituality in education as a way to address the lived experiences and personal knowledge of students with the goal of creating a more holistic transformative educational process This edited volume has a wide array of viewpoints which all point to the importance of spirituality in the authors personal lives their communities and society at large Spirituality is conceptualised as a base from which to challenge dominant forms of knowing while in the process being able to center and engage with an important aspect of the student that has been missing from current evaluations their spiritual selves Within the diversity of this volume it becomes evident that spirituality cannot be confined to a singular definition and that educators must be willing to create spaces to foster spiritual growth and exploration if we are to break away from the commoditized disempowering system that is so dominant today This edited collection is a valuable resource for students practitioners educators and administrators who wish to engage in transformational schooling Its multidisciplinary approach engages ideas around critical pedagogy sociology of education and inclusive schooling There is an increasing need for exploring novel paradigms of studying education in the context of the dynamics that straddle social economic and technological processes that have come to characterize the world in recent years This book is a timely contribution in this respect as its focus transcends hitherto applied approaches that depend largely on western orientation The book breaks new grounds in studying education and society that find significant relevance in societies that are marginalized by the dominant western understanding The authors draw from the rich heritage of spirituality that is akin to the non western social paradigms to develop a rigorous but creative concept of schooling I am sure practitioners researchers and students of education will find it a valuable source of practical and theoretical information that would widen their horizon of understanding of sociology of education Tom Mongare Ndege PhD Moi University Kenya The editors have compiled a brilliant collection of essays Each piece of scholarly work shows how spirituality is a paramount part of our everyday lives and is connected to teaching learning living and healing This is a timely and most relevant work that is sure to spur critical dialogue and discussion This collection shows that while the spirit may be wounded it can never be broken Erica Neeganagwedgin PhD University of Toronto
