Manor Grace Wheaton is delighted to be part of the estate s magnificent history but no one told her solving murder was in her job description When Grace s former professor calls to warn her that there have been a rash of thefts at various historical sites Grace isn t surprised because Marshfield Manor has been targeted too She wonders if it has something to do with the film crew roaming the grounds digitally immortalizing the manor but then she gets distracted by an incident much more dire the shooting of one guest and the murder of another Grace does her best not to go looking for trouble but with a murderer on the loose she can t seem to leave the dirty work to the cops especially since the killer still seems to be lurking around town robbery against one of the most impenetrable trucks ever invented Two murdered guards a further two hospitalised and unable to identify the perpetrators It soon becomes apparent that this was a well planned heist with over one hundred thousand pounds taken But Detective Inspector Fusil has very little information to go on and following coincidental clues gut instinct seems the way to go The net is closing in on the criminals until one by one they also show up murdered Is one of the armed gang turning on their team Just who is behind these mysterious murders The suspects all have alibis and none of the stolen money The case begins to fall apart and Fusil can t stop himself questioning his instincts But what if he has looked at the case from the wrong angle Can he convince his superiors to follow through on one more line of questioning Fusil s theory may seem far fetched but if it s right he may be able to capture one of the most dangerous villains around The one that no one would ever suspect Murder Among Thieves is a brilliantly written crime novel full of suspense with a truly shocking ending that you will not forget Roderic Jeffries was born in London in 1926 and went to sea in 1943 Six years later he left that trade to become a lawyer He again changed profession to become a writer Since 1951 he has written over one hundred
