exposing this continental movement to an anglophone audience. Featuring a foreword by the eminent contemporary philosopher and leading exponent of Speculative Realism Iain Hamilton Grant the book begins by tracing the genesis of New Realism and outlining its central theoretical tenets before opening onto three distinct sections. The first Negativity is a critique of the postmodern idea that the world is constructed by our conceptual schemas all the more so as we have entered the age of digitality and virtuality. The second thesis positivity proposes the fundamental ontological assertion of New Realism namely that not only are there parts of reality that are independent of thought but these parts are also able to act causally over thought and the human world. The third thesis normativity applies New Realism to the sphere of the social world. Finally an afterword written by two young scholars explains in more detail the relationship between New Realism and other forms of contemporary realism.

Manifesto of New Realism Maurizio Ferraris, 2014-12-01 Retraces the history of postmodern philosophy and proposes solutions to overcome its impasses. Philosophical realism has taken a number of different forms each applied to different topics and set against different forms of idealism and subjectivism. Maurizio Ferraris's Manifesto of New Realism takes aim at postmodernism and hermeneutics arguing against their emphasis on reality as constructed and interpreted. While acknowledging the value of these criticisms of traditional dogmatic realism Ferraris insists that the insights of postmodernism have reached a dead end. Calling for the discipline to turn its focus back to truth and the external world Ferraris's manifesto which sparked lively debate in Italy and beyond offers a wiser realism with social and political relevance. In the new atmosphere of Anglophone continental thought realism is not just a viable option but is arguably home to the most promising innovations of our time. Ferraris will serve as a welcome new influence from the Foreword by Graham Harman.

The New Realists Sidney Janis Gallery, 1962    The New Realism Edwin Bissell Holt, 1922    A Theory of Direct Realism and the Relation of Realism to Idealism John Evan Turner, 1925    The New Scholasticism Edward Aloysius Pace, James Hugh Ryan, 1928 Includes section Book Reviews    The New Realism: Coöperative Studies in Philosophy by Edwin B. Holt Edwin Bissell Holt, 1912    New Realism and Contemporary Philosophy Gregor Kroupa, Jure Simoniti, 2020-06-25 This open access book advances the current debate in continental realism. In the field of contemporary continental ontology Speculative Realist thinkers are now grappling with the genealogy of their ideas in the history of modern philosophy. The Speculative Realism movement prompted a debate criticizing the predominant postmodernist orientation in philosophy which located its origins in Kantian correlationism which supposedly ended the period of early modern naive realist metaphysics by showing that the mind and the outside world can only ever be understood as correlates. The debate over a new kind of realism has attracted many supporters and critics. In order to refocus its specific interpretation of modern philosophy in general and of the Kantian gesture in particular this volume brings together major authors working on contemporary ontology and historians of ideas. It underlines and illustrates the fact that contemporary continental philosophy is rediscovering its past in original ways by productively reinterpreting some of the key concepts of modern philosophy The perspectives and accounts of the key concepts of the history of philosophy are different in the views of individual contributors and sometimes radically so yet the discussion between contemporary realists and their critics shows that the real battleground of new ideas lies not in developing the philosophical motifs of the end of the 20th century but rather in rethinking the milestones of modern philosophy The eBook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 3 0 licence on www.bloomsburycollections.com Present-day Thinkers and the New Scholasticism John Stanislaus Zybura,1926 The New Larned History for Ready Reference, Reading and Research Josephus Nelson Larned,1923 The New Idealism May Sinclair,1922 Philosophy and Psychology Pamphlets ,1923 Magazine Writing and the New Literature Henry Mills Alden,1908
