In the last decade museums all around the world have been reinventing themselves They are now much more than scholarly cultural archives A remit to reach out to a broader public the increasing politicization of the ownership and curation of objects the architectural expectations of new buildings the requirements of the event exhibit all have changed the way any new museum is built operates and serves its public purpose Museums now reflect global economics and local politics New museums now shape our public culture Illustrated with a very wide range of museums and museum spaces from MOMA in New York to the reconstruction of Ground Zero from the National Museum of the American Indian in Washington DC to the Museo Guggenheim Bilbao from the planned renewal of the Crystal Palace site in London to the Sendai Mediatheque in Japan the book reveals how the new museum is evolving as a cross disciplinary self consciously political and often avowedly self reflexive institution New Museums Josep Maria Montaner,1990 New Museums Mimi Zeiger,2005 Since the opening in 1997 of the Guggenheim Bilbao designed by Frank Gehry museum architecture has enjoyed worldwide attention on an unprecedented scale That single watershed project demonstrated to municipalities that architecture has the power to transform the image of an entire city thus making the turn of the twenty first century the unofficial age of the museum building New Museums examines the boom in high design museum projects in detail beginning with the Guggenheim Bilbao s groundbreaking role in the development of contemporary museum architecture It continues with a beautifully illustrated tour of 30 examples of the most innovative and exciting museum architecture around the world including Tadao Ando s Museum of Modern Art in Fort Worth Zaha Hadid s Contemporary Arts Center in Cincinnati Renzo Piano s Nasher Sculpture Center in Dallas and many others The New Museum: A plan for a new museum John Cotton Dana,1920 Collecting the New Bruce Altshuler,2007-08-12 Twelve distinguished curators discuss the questions challenges faced by museums in acquiring preserving contemporary art The New Museum of Modern Art Glenn D. Museums and Public Art? Cher Krause Knight, Harriet F. Senie, 2018-06-11 While many museums have ignored public art as a distinct arena of art production and display others have either grudgingly or enthusiastically embraced it Some institutions have partnered with public art agencies to expand the scope of special exhibitions other museums have attempted to establish in house public art programs This is the first book to contextualize the collaborations between museums and public art through a range of essays marked by their coherence of topical focus written by leading and emerging scholars and artists Organized into three sections it represents a major contribution to the field of art history in general and to those of public art and museum studies in particular It includes essays by art historians critics curators arts administrators and artists all of whom help to finally codify the largely unwritten history of how museums and public art have and continue to intersect Key questions are both addressed and offered as topics for further discussion Who originates such public art initiatives funds them and most importantly establishes the philosophy behind them Is the efficacy of these initiatives evaluated in the same way as other museum exhibitions and programs Can public art ever be a permanent feature in any museum And finally are the museum and public art ultimately at odds or able to mutually benefit one another
