The New Puritan James Shepherd Pike, 1879 Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English, 2012-01-01 How can the short story help to redefine modernism postmodernism and their interrelationship What is the status of the short story in modern literary history These are the central questions that the essays collected in this volume try to answer from different perspectives through readings of short fiction in English and accounts of the genre's theorisations The essays by a group of international scholars tackle theoretical issues that are central in approaches to both movements such as periodisation autonomy high vs popular literature totality vs fragmentation surface vs depth otherness representation and above all the subject and its vicissitudes Because it blends theory based arguments into the approaches to the short fiction of mainly canonical authors Joyce Woolf Lewis Ballard Carter Rushdie or Wallace Modernism Postmodernism and the Short Story in English is of interest not only to readers and scholars of the short story but also to those coming from the fields of literary theory and literary history Common Sense 101 Dale Ahlquist, 2006-01-01 Dale Ahlquist the President of the American Chesterton Society and author of G K Chesterton The Apostle of Common Sense presents a book of wonderful insights on how to look at the whole world through the eyes of Chesterton Since as he says Chesterton wrote about everything there is an ocean of his material to benefit from GKC's insights on a kaleidoscope of many important topics Chesterton wrote a hundred books on a variety of themes thousands of essays for London newspapers penned epic poetry delighted in detective fiction drew illustrations and made everyone laugh by his keen humor Everyone who knew Chesterton loved him even those he debated with His unique writing style that combines philosophy spirituality history humor and paradox have made him one of the most widely read authors of modern times As Ahlquist shows in his engaging volume this most quoted writer of the 20th century has much to share with us on topics covering politics art education wonder marriage fads poetry faith charity and much more The Cancel Culture Panic Adrian Daub, 2024-09-24 Fear of cancel culture has gripped the world and it turns out to be an old fear in a new get up In this incisive new work Adrian Daub analyzes the global spread of cancel culture discourse as a moral panic showing that though its object is fuzzy talk of cancel culture in global media has become a preoccupation of an embattled liberalism There are plenty of conservative voices who gin up worries about cancel culture to advance their agendas But more remarkable perhaps is that it is centrist even left leaning media that have taken up the rallying cry and really defined the outlines of what cancel culture is supposed to be Media in Western Europe South America Russia and Australia have devoted as much in some cases more attention to this supposedly American phenomenon than most US outlets From French crusades against le wokisme via British fables of the loony left to a German obsession with campus anecdotes to a global revolt against gender studies countries the world over have developed culture war narratives in conflict with the US and above all its universities narratives that they themselves borrowed from the US Who exactly is afraid of cancel culture To trace how various global publics have been so quickly convinced that cancel culture exists and that it poses an existential problem Daub compares the cancel culture panic to moral panics past investigating the powerful hold that the idea of being cancelled has on readers around the world A book for anyone wondering how institutions of higher learning in the US have become objects of immense interest and political lightning rods not just for audiences and voters in the US but worldwide Writers Talk Philip Tew, Fiona Tolan, Leigh Wilson, 2008-05-01 Writers Talk includes interviews with Kate Atkinson Pat Barker Jonathan Coe Jim Crace Toby Litt Graham Swift Matt Thorne David Mitchell Alan Warner and Will Self Is it a good time to be a writer in the time of The Da Vinci Code It s not necessarily good time to be a literary writer Kate Atkinson The best novels allow us to rehearse the world ahead of us to play out the battle before we fight it to experience disaster before we encounter it to practice grief before it flattens us Narrative is useful It confers advantages on us as a species Jim Crace Why do writers write How do they react to criticism of their work What inspires them and how do go about working Does fiction have any political ethical or spiritual significance Can we learn more about a book from its author This collection of interviews with contemporary British novelists offers a fascinating insight into bestselling authors views on fiction today their influences and themes readers and critics why they write and their writing process and provides a snapshot of the reality of living as a writer Contemporary Constructions of the Child Frank S.
