The New Racism in Europe Jeffrey Cole, 1997-11-27 In the last twenty years immigration has become one of the most contested issues in Western Europe The arrival of Africans Asians Eastern Europeans and others in Italy has reversed earlier trends of emigration Debate political activity and violence have raised questions of rejection and integration of anti racism and the new racism Studies of these issues commonly focus on political activity and the plight of minorities but this book breaks new ground in its emphasis on the everyday reactions of Italians to immigration and related issues Drawing on research carried out in Palermo Jeffrey Cole considers the role of class culture local history and political economy in the ambivalent responses of Sicilians to immigrants He places Italian attitudes in a European context and investigates why anti immigrant politics are concentrated in the wealthy Italian North Writing Centers and the New Racism Laura Greenfield, Karen Rowan, 2011-12-16 Noting a lack of sustained and productive dialogue about race in university writing center scholarship the editors of this volume have created a rich resource for writing center tutors administrators and scholars Motivated by a scholarly interest in race and whiteness studies and by an ethical commitment to anti racism work contributors address a series of related questions How does institutionalized racism in American education shape the culture of literacy and language education in the writing center How does racism operate in the discourses of writing center scholarship lore and how may writing centers be unwittingly complicit in racist practices How can they meaningfully operationalize anti racist work How do they persevere through the difficulty and messiness of negotiating race and racism in their daily practice The conscientious nuanced attention to race in this volume is meant to model what it means to be bold in engagement with these hard questions and to spur the kind of sustained productive multi vocal and challenging dialogue that with a few significant exceptions has been absent from the field Racism and Migration in Western Europe John Wrench, 1993-12-21 In contemporary European societies the question of racism linked to the politicization of migration is a major issue in social and political debate This volume provides a critical overview of the processes that have led to the present situation and explores some of the options for the future Europe's new racism? : causes, manifestations and solutions Evens Foundation (Anvers), Liberalism & the Politics of Plunder Robert Gillmore, 1987 Democracy Heading South Augustus B. Cochran, 2001 For Cochran the sense of deja vu is overwhelming and alarming BOOK JACKET

America in the Seventies Beth L. Bailey, 2004 The seventies witnessed economic decline in America coupled with a series of foreign policy failures events that created an air of unease and uncertainty This volume examines the ways in which Americans responded to a changing world and sought to redefine themselves New Racism Norma Romm, 2014-10-17 This book develops a debate around responsible social inquiry into new racism A variety of ways of researching new forms of racism for example aversive modern cultural purportedly color blind and new racism are addressed Experiments that have been undertaken to inquire into group identity and people s implicit bias in relation to those perceived as other are critically explored and their potential consequences reconsidered The book also critically explores survey research which it is argued can serve to reinforce the notion of the existence of ethnoracial groups with defined boundaries that inhere in social life The book considers interviewing including focus group interviewing and case study research including participant observation ethnography in terms of possibilities for moving beyond new forms of racism Action research defined by the understanding of an inextricable link between knowing and acting is examined in depth in terms of the hopes to make a difference at the moment of inquiry Types of retroductive logic that are used to examine underlying structures that arguably unduly constrain people's life chances and render human relationships inhumane are also explored The book draws together the different arguments and it proposes ways in which the design of research into new racism can be better approached as well as ways in which dialogue around processes of inquiry and the products thereof can be better fostered Suggestions for nurturing humane social relationships that provide for transcultural meaning making are threaded through the text Hip-hop Revolution Jeffrey Ogbonna Green Ogbar, 2007 As hip hop artists constantly struggle to keep it real this fascinating study examines the debates over the core codes of hip hop authenticity as it reflects and reacts to problematic black images in popular culture placing hip hop in its proper cultural political and social contexts
