Sustainable Growth and Performance Hans Landström,Hans Crijns,Eddy Laveren,David Smallbone,2008-01-01

Collectively the authors present an informative overview of some of the best European research in entrepreneurship that exists at present In addition the variation in research traditions and approaches offer the reader an interesting insight into the various disciplinary perspectives that can shed light on entrepreneurial activities including insights from psychology sociology finance and strategy The attempt to examine both individual and firm level analysis is also a strength of this book given that the majority of entrepreneurship research tends to focus on just one of these streams and there is a dearth of work that is able to integrate and understand both dimensions simultaneously the book provides value for money for those whom entrepreneurship research within a European context is a particular interest Jean Clarke International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research This book brings together some of Europe s finest scholars showcasing the richness diversity and quality of European entrepreneurship research Collectively the authors present an authoritative overview of state of the art research on current entrepreneurship themes This book is a must read for scholars policymakers and students interested in staying updated about the current state of entrepreneurship research Johan Wiklund Syracuse University US The 20th edition of the RENT conference took place where it started 20 years ago in the European capital Brussels The current volume presents the best papers of this conference and offers a grand view of the state of the art of European entrepreneurship research Drivers as well as consequences are dealt with from many different angles Taken together it gives a thorough description of the scarcest and most essential of all input factors of the modern economy entrepreneurship Roy Thurik Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands This book provides an invaluable state of the art overview of current European research in the field of entrepreneurship It focuses on four themes each of which illustrates a key dimension in the overall theme entrepreneurs and their role in entrepreneurship entrepreneurship in family businesses performance of new ventures and entrepreneurial processes Entrepreneurship Sustainable Growth and Performance is written from various perspectives by eminent academics with different methodological approaches It is an invaluable resource for researchers scholars and students as well as consultants and policymakers with an interest in entrepreneurship and small businesses New Technology-based Firms at the Turn of the Century W. E. During,Raymond P. Oakey,Michelle Kipling,2000 This book represents a continuation of an uninterrupted record of international research pertaining to high technology small firms HTSFs over a period that has witnessed a rebirth of interest in the growth problems of the small firm and is a further addition to a portfolio of specialist work by academics and practitioners on the issues facing new technology based firms NTBFs The book begins with a conceptual overview on the broad theme of innovation in NTBFs providing a theoretical perspective on the problems of innovation at the end of the twentieth century and setting in context the more specific contributions to follow A continuing theme of HTSF research is innovation management and seven chapters are included under this heading focusing on topics such as university spin out companies and the role of non executive directors The successful management of innovation in NTBFs is clearly critical to their survival and growth Another key and recurrent area of interest to researchers concerned with the problems of NTBFs is finance with three chapters here addressing the funding problems faced by NTBFs during often lengthy periods of product development The book concludes with a set of contributions which deal with the increasingly important issues of clustering and location as they affect NTBFs The chapters included in this book represent a strong set of themes indicative of what key workers in the area of NTBF development are thinking at the turn of the millennium These issues of effective management funding and networking are key themes that will continue in the new millennium

Entrepreneurship, Cooperation and the Firm J. M.
