Moris, Joseph P. Moris, 2016-03-19 At the end of our first taped session into learning about the pyramids and other mysteries of the Earth and the universe I asked Marisa if I could question Jesus about Paul the New Testament author We were astonished when Jesus obliged and appeared to Marisa I asked Jesus Did Paul write his thirteen epistles from his heart Jesus replied Ask him yourself Paul appeared and gave us a surprising answer You can read his response in his and Luke's Book III of this series There are five books Book I features Matthew and Mark Book II Peter and John Book III Luke and Paul Book IV James and Jude and Book V is a one on one interview with Jesus Throughout this process we interviewed Jesus most of all He gave us several new parables In one of these parables Jesus says that we are all diamonds surrounded by coal The diamond is representative of the Spirit that resides in every living person The coal symbolizes the influences of the dark forces that effect us daily Jesus says that it is the goal of the Spirit to chip away at that coal until our diamond shines through and becomes the beacon of light to others Marisa is not particularly a religious person She is not intimately familiar with the Bible That makes these Authors books even more astounding We come to know the personalities of the authors Marisa channels them while I ask the questions Jesus told us People will understand the Bible now and say things like Oh that is what they meant and Oh that is why they wrote that Each of these author accounts in The Bible Speaks series reads much like a novel Even more Jesus promises that he and each of the characters in these books will be with you while you are reading their words He promised      An Introduction to the New Testament M.
