Everyday Multiculturalism in/across Asia Jessica Walton, Anita Harris, Koichi Iwabuchi, 2021-05-13 What does it mean to bring Asia into conversation with current literature on everyday multiculturalism This book focuses on the empirical theoretical and methodological considerations of using an everyday multiculturalism approach to explore the ordinary ways people live together in difference in the Asian region while also drawing attention to increasing trans Asian mobilities The chapters in this collection encompass inter disciplinary research undertaken in Australia Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and South Korea that explores some core aspects of everyday multiculturalism as it plays out in and across Asia. These include an increase in intraregional movements and especially labour mobility which demands regard for the experiences of migrants from Burma, China, Nepal, The Philippines and India; negotiations of cultural diversity in nations where a multi-ethnic citizenry is formally recognised through predominantly pluralist models and/or where national belonging is highly racialized and intercultural contestation against in some cases the backdrop of a newly emergent multicultural policy environment. The book challenges and reinvigorates discussions around the relative transferability of an everyday multiculturalism framework to Asia including concepts such as super diversity, conviviality and everyday racism and the importance of close attention to how people navigate differences and commonalities in local and trans-local contexts. This book will be of interest to academics and researchers studying migration, multiculturalism, ethnic and racial studies and to advanced students of Sociology, Political Science and Public Policy. It was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies. The Politics of Multicultural Encounters Salla Tuori, 2009. The Languages of Business Francesca Bargiela-Chiappini, Sandra Harris, 1997. This book explores how people around the world speaking different languages accomplish business. Code-Switching in Arts Johanna Domokos, Judit Mudriczki, Marianna Deganutti, 2024-03-21. Incorporating more than one linguistic code or mode of expression in literary and artistic productions has quickly grown over the last two decades. This volume pays special attention to the dynamic rise of code switching especially in literature and performative arts and explores strategies used by contemporary artists to compose their multilingual narratives as well as moves beyond the linguistic level in the direction of multimodality. The innovative frameworks and descriptions intend to highlight the different ways in which art unlike ordinary language use manifests language mixing and switching. Besides the papers by both young and established scholars the volume includes a section of valuable contributions from multilingual authors and artists to bridge the gap between academic approaches and creative professional practices.
