Multilingual Living Explorations Of Language And Subjectivity:

Multilingual Living C. Burck, 2004-12-07 Multilingual Living presents speakers own accounts of the challenges and advantages of living in several languages at individual family and societal levels Individuals note profound differences in their sense of themselves their relationships and their parenting depending on which language they use Multilingualism,

Discourse, and Ethnography Sheena Gardner, 2012 Over the last twenty years sociolinguistic research on multilingualism has been transformed Two processes have been at work first an epistemological shift to a critical ethnographic approach which has contributed to a larger turn toward post structuralist perspectives on social life Second the effects of globalization transnational population flows new communication technologies transformations in the political and economic landscape have sparked increasing concern about the implications of these changes for our understanding of the relationship between language and society A new sociolinguistics of multilingualism is being forged one that takes account of the new communicative order while retaining a central concern with the processes in the construction of social difference The contributors to this volume have been at the forefront of these epistemological shifts They write here about the conceptual and methodological challenges posed by these shifts and the profound changes that we are witnessing in the late modern era

A Psychoanalytic Exploration On Sameness and Otherness Anne-Marie Schlösser, 2019-12-06 In dialogue with the most famous myth for the origin of different languages The Tower of Babel A Psychoanalytic Exploration on Sameness and Otherness Beyond Babel provides a series of timely reflections on the themes of sameness and otherness from a contemporary psychoanalytic perspective How are we dealing with communication and its difficulties the confusion of tongues and loss of common ground within a European context today Can we move beyond Babel Confusion and feared loss of shared values and identity are a major part of the daily work of psychoanalytic psychotherapists Bringing together an international range psychoanalytic practitioners and researchers the book is divided into six parts and covers an array of resonant topics including language and translation cultural identity families and children the cyber world the psychotherapeutic process and migration Whereas the quest for unity which underpins the myth of Babel leads to mystification simplification and the exclusion of people or things multilingual communities necessitate mutual understanding through dialogue This book examines those factors that further or threaten communication aiming not to reduce but to gain complexity It suggests that diversification enriches communication and that by relating to others we can create something new As opposed to cultural and linguistic homogeneity Babel is not only a metaphor for mangled communication alienation and distraction it is also about the acceptance or rejection of differences between self and other This book will be of great interest to psychoanalytic psychotherapists and researchers from a wide variety of backgrounds Early Years Second Language Education Sandie Mourão, Mónica Lourenço, 2014-11-20 The age for early language learning has dropped dramatically in the past decade to include children under 6 years old yet very little published research exists to support the implementation of such programmes Drawing on a synthesis of theory research and practice this edited volume makes an innovative contribution to literature concerning language education for very young children It explores language learning in a wide range of geographical contexts with reference to second and foreign language learning bilingualism and plurilingualism with children under the age of 6 years old Chapters present discussion around teacher education policy making international case studies school and home based projects code switching and language use and methodologies and approaches Early Years Second Language Education International perspectives on theory and practice will be essential reading for researchers academics teacher trainers and post graduate students in the fields of early years education foreign and second language education language didactics and teacher education

Life in a New Language Ingrid Piller, Donna Butorac, Emily Farrell, Loy Lising, Shiva Motaghi-Tabari, Vera Williams Tetteh, 2024 International migration and the social diversity it creates constitute one of the key global challenges of the early 21st century Language and communication barriers can compromise equitable access in diverse societies and where socioeconomic disadvantage becomes entrenched it poses risks to security productivity and quality of life Clearly this is an important issue and migrants and their language choices are heavily politicized though political and media debates often rely on anecdotal conjecture or are ill informed Life in a New Language examines the language learning and settlement experiences of 130 migrants to Australia from 34 different countries in Africa Asia Europe and Latin America over a period of 20 years Reusing data shared from six separate sociolinguistic ethnographies the book illuminates participants lived experience of learning and communicating in a new language finding work and doing family Additionally participants experiences with racism and identity making in a new context are explored The research uncovers significant hardship but also migrants courage and resilience The book has implications for language service provision migration policy open science and social justice movements

Living Languages Tracey Tokuhama-Espinosa, 2007-12-30 Globalization is on everyone's tongue and the discussion is not only limited to economic exchange but expands to the intermingling of cultural values To be truly successful in the international arena whether as an immigrant student businessperson or tourist openness toward other cultures is vital and the most obvious door to those cultures is through language Learning a second language is no longer an option for many it is both a survival tool and an opportunity This book is an aid to parents educators researchers and individuals who want facts about foreign language learning in order to apply concrete tools to maximize their potential in this area independent of their age This book examines the various factors in successful multilingualism across the lifespan discussing groups such as those lucky enough to enjoy bilingualism from birth to those who become foreign language learners in adulthood Special attention is paid to a critique of the academic critical years concept and the question how long does it take a non-native speaker to become fluent While many are concerned with bilingualism millions around the world live with three or more languages For those considering adding a third language this book looks at the benefits of bilingualism that transfer to trilingualism Finally the book establishes methods for teaching foreign languages and hints for home support that maximize each person's potential for languages Intercultural Contact, Language Learning and Migration Barbara Geraghty, Jean Conacher, 2014-09-25 At the heart of this volume lies an exploration of what actually happens to languages and their users when cultures come into contact. What actions do supra national institutions, nation states, communities and individuals take in response to questions raised by the increasingly diverse forms of migration experienced in a globalized world? The volume reveals the profound impact that decisions made at national and international level can have on the lives of the individual migrant language student or speech community. Equally it evaluates the broader ramifications of actions taken by migrant communities and individual language learners around issues of language learning, language maintenance and intercultural contact. Reflecting Jan Blommaert's assertion that in a world shaped by globalization what is needed is a theory of language in society of changing language in a changing society this volume argues that researchers must increasingly seek diverse methodological approaches if they are to do justice to the diversity of experience and response they encounter The

Cambridge Handbook of Childhood Multilingualism Anat Stavans, Ulrike Jessner, 2022-08-25 Childhood multilingualism has become a norm rather than an exception. This is the first handbook to survey state of the art research on the uniqueness of early multilingual development in children growing up with more than two languages in contact. It provides in depth accounts of the complexity and dynamics of early multilingualism by internationally renowned scholars who have researched typologically different languages in different continents. Chapters are divided into six thematic areas following the trajectory environment and conditions underlying the incipient and early stages of multilingual children's language development. The many facets of childhood multilingualism are approached from a range of perspectives showcasing not only the challenges of multilingual education and child rearing but also the richness in linguistic and cognitive development of these children from infancy to early schooling. It is essential reading for anyone interested in deepening their understanding of the multiple aspects of multilingualism seen through the unique prism of children Language George Melville Bolling, Bernard Bloch, 2005 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2005 Economie Et Langue André Cyr, 2005
