Murder And Masculinity Violent Fictions Of Twentieth Century Latin America:

Murder and Masculinity Rebecca E. Biron, 2000 Rebecca Biron breaks new ground in this study of masculinity violence and the strategic construction of collective political identities in twentieth century Latin American fiction. By engaging current sociological, psychoanalytic and feminist theories, Murder and Masculinity analyzes the cliché of proving virility through violence against women. Biron develops her argument through close readings of five works: Jorge Luis Borges's La intrusa, Armonia Somer's El despojo, Clarice Lispector's A Maca no Escuro, Manuel Puig's The Buenos Aires Affair and Reinaldo Arenas's El Asalto. Although men murdering women is often interpreted as nothing more than machista misogyny, Biron argues that the five narratives addressed in this book show that healed masculinities are essential to the achievement of cultural identity and political autonomy in Latin America. The introduction to this study deftly situates Biron's work in relation to previous theoretical arguments on the social and political dimensions of Latin American writing. The five subsequent chapters offer superb analyses of the individual texts. Like their male protagonists who experiment with the psychological and legal extremes of gender division, these narratives risk nonconformity to the laws of genre in their quest for liberation from violent social and literary conventions. In combining elements of detective stories, crime narratives, psychological case studies and magical or grotesque realism, they offer metafictional commentary on a network of discourses that confuses images of masculinity, national identity and political autonomy in postcolonial Latin America.

Gender Violence in Twenty-first-century Latin American Women's Writing Maria Encarnacion Lopez, Stephen M. Hart, 2022 How do contemporary female authors in Latin America tackle gender violence in their writings? This book analyses the portrayal of violence against women in the works of ten contemporary Latin American female authors: Alejandra Jaramillo, Morales, Laura Restrepo, Ena Lucia Portela, Wendy Guerra, Selva Almada, Claudia Pineiro, Diamela Eltit, Carla Guelfenbein, Lydia Cacho and Fernanda Melchor. Governments in Latin America have routinely failed to protect women from abuse, threats, censorship, repressive policies on reproduction rights, forced displacement, sex trafficking, disappearances and femicides, and this book beats a new path through these burning issues by drawing on the knowledges encapsulated by sociology as much as the visions articulated by literature. Through an exploration of works published in the twenty-first century by women writers from Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Cuba and Mexico.

this volume reconceptualises positions of privilege and power in the region and provides new readings about the meaning of gender sexuality violence and the female body in contemporary Latin America The aim of this book is to raise awareness of the daily threat of violence against women in Latin America underline the importance of the voice of Latin American women within that daily struggle and encourage governments organisations and institutions in Latin America and the Caribbean to take gender violence seriously and fight to secure peace and social equality for all women in the modern world

Politics and Violence in Cuban and Argentine Theater K. Ford,2010-02-01 This book looks at Cuban and Argentine theater of the late 1960s and early 1970s to see how the idea of spectacle as violence was used to comment on and question the social and political violence that was unfolding offstage

Subverting Sex, Gender, and Genre in Cuban and Mexican Detective Fiction Ailsa Peate,2024-09-25 The presence of bodies and sex in detective fiction has been a long term feature of this internationally popular genre Titillation is at the centre of narratives reliant upon discovery and revelation motives and criminals are slowly revealed along with sexualized and violated bodies from femmes fatales to the corpses of victims A satisfying gratifying genre for its readership the detective novel promises the disruption and subsequent restoration of order in societies tarnished by disillusionment which hope for a better future This book takes as its focus examples of detective fiction from Cuba and Mexico during or in the aftermath of huge social upheaval the Special Period and the War on Drugs analyzing representations of sexualities bodies and the genre itself Through an investigation of novels by Leonardo Padura and Amir Valle of Cuba and Bef and Rogelio Guedea of Mexico this work investigates increasingly fluid sexualities and bodies in challenging examples of metaphysical detective fiction a particularly anxious subgenre which challenges both the structures and limits of the detective novel and the reader s understanding of true and false and right and wrong representative of troubling periods of severe social disruption for Cuba and Mexico

Dude Lit Emily Hind,2019-05-07 How did men become the stars of the Mexican intellectual scene Dude Lit examines the tricks of the trade and reveals that sometimes literary genius rests on privileges that men extend one another and that women permit The makings of the best writers have to do with superficial aspects like conformist wardrobes and unsmiling expressions and more complex techniques such as friendship networks prizewinners who become judges dropouts who become teachers and the key tactic of being allowed to shift roles from rule maker the civilizado to rule breaker the b rbaro Certain writing habits also predict success with the high and hard category reserved for men s writing and even film directing In both film and literature critically respected artwork by men tends to rely on obscenity interpreted as originality negative topics viewed as serious and coolly inarticulate narratives about bullying understood as maximum literary achievement To build the case regarding rebellion as conformity Dude Lit contemplates a wide set of examples while always returning to three figures each born some two decades apart from the immediate predecessor Juan Rulfo with Pedro P ramo Jos Emilio Pacheco with Las batallas en el desierto and Guillermo Fadanelli with Mis mujeres muertas as well as the range of his publications Why do we believe Mexican men are
