Murder At Eastover:

Murder at Eastover Amanda Rutter,1958 Who Done It? Ordean A. Hagen,1969 Official Report of the Trial of L. D. F. for the Murder of A. P. Crittenden, Etc Laura D. Fair,1871 Mystery Index Steven Olderr,1987 Provides indexes to American and British mystery novels by author title subject setting and characters Murder Along the Cape Fear David T. Morgan,2005 Murder Along the Cape Fear is the story of Fayetteville and Fort Bragg North Carolina during the twentieth century Seen through the eyes of a native son this is the tale of one a distinguished historian who lived through some of it and heard about much of it from friends and relatives In this hundred year journey the town was profoundly impacted by the establishment of Fort Bragg 10 miles to its west Throughout this hundred year history murder seems to be the scarlet thread that stitched the town into infamy The book demonstrates that Fayetteville was by no means innocent prior to the coming of Fort Bragg Nor did all of the crime and evil emanate from Fort Bragg after 1918 As for murder there was an abundance of killing that had no connection with Fort Bragg but the most sensational murder case of the century involved Jeffrey MacDonald a Green Beret Army captain and physician who received three life terms in federal prison for killing his pregnant wife and two daughters While many other Fort Bragg soldiers were involved with murders along the Cape Fear murders were also committed by transient civilians and local citizens like the famous inventor of the M 1 carbine Marshall Carbine Williams and Velma Barfield who poisoned her mother and three other people In all about two dozen murder cases some highly publicized and some not are woven into this story about a North Carolina town in the twentieth century Engagingly told this book is a wonderful blend of history lore and murder Two Sides to Everything Shaunna L. Scott,1995-02-23 This is an oral history and ethnography of miners and their families in Kentucky focusing on political ideology and working class consciousness Harlan County Kentucky emerged in the public eye during the 1930s when poverty unemployment and violent unionization struggles caught the attention of the national news media and the American people It burst on the scene again during the 1972 73 Brookside strike an event chronicled in the Academy Award winning film Harlan County U S A In this book the author brings the American reader up to date on this interesting community by documenting the everyday lives of Harlan miners and their families in the mid 1980s Using a neo Marxian perspective Two Sides to Everything characterizes the nature limitations and transformative potential of class consciousness among two generations of Harlan miners It also elucidates the apparent contradictions between popular images of central Appalachians as militant labor activists on one hand and passive traditional fatalistic hillbillies on the other The book accomplishes these tasks through a systematic consideration of the relationship between the central experiential bases and sources of identity among Harlan county miners class kinship community religion and gender The Bibliography of Crime Fiction, 1749-1975 Allen J.
