The Clement Bible at the Medieval Courts of Naples and Avignon Cathleen A. Fleck, 2017-07-05 As a biography of the fourteenth-century illustrated Bible of Clement VII an opposition pope in Avignon from 1378-94 this social history traces the Bible's production in Naples c. 1330 through its changing ownership and meaning in Avignon c. 1340-1405 to its presentation as a gift to Alfonso King of Aragon c. 1424 The author's novel approach based on solid art historical and anthropological methodologies allows her to assess the object's evolving significance and the use of such a Bible to enhance the power and prestige of its princely and papal owners Through archival sources the author pinpoints the physical location and privileged treatment of the Clement Bible over a century The author considers how the Bible's contexts in the collection of a bishop several popes and a king demonstrate the value of the Bible as an exchange commodity The Bible was undoubtedly valued for the aesthetic quality of its 200 luxurious images Additionally the author argues that its iconography especially Jerusalem and visionary scenes augments its worth as a reflection of contemporary political and religious issues Its images offered biblical precedents its style represented associations with certain artists and regions in Italy and its past provided links to important collections Fleck's examination of the art production around the Bible in Naples and Avignon further illuminates the manuscript's role as a reflection of the court cultures in those cities Adding to recent art historical scholarship focusing on the taste and signature styles in late medieval and Renaissance courts this study provides new information about workshop practices and techniques In these two court cities the author analyzes styles associated with different artists different patrons and even with different rooms of the rulers' palaces offering new findings relevant to current scholarship not only in art history but also in court and collection studies
