Wilmer, H. van Maanen, 2024-04-02 Theatre Worlds in Motion aims to clarify the different theatre traditions and practices in Western Europe from a historical and sociological perspective The book grew out of a perceived need among theatre scholars who had recognised that while they understood the theatre system of their own country they often found it difficult to discover how it compared with other countries The chapters analyse the basic components and dynamics of theatre systems in seventeen Western European nations in order to elucidate how the systems function in general and how they vary in different cultures The book provides a sense of what has been happening recently in particular countries and indicates how the theatre systems have developed over time and have led to the current practices and structures Each national chapter considers the historical tradition and place of theatre within the country and analyses the role of the state in fostering theatre during the last fifty years Material from the national chapters has been used in two general chapters at the beginning and end of the book to provide an overview to developments in all Western Europe The introductory chapter on decentralisation discusses the tendency amongst governments to encourage cultural development outside the national capital by providing subsidy for regional theatre venues and theatre companies and in many cases by developing the decision making and budgetary powers for the theatre to regional and local authorities The epilogue on the functioning of theatre examines the common structures of theatre in society as described in the seventeen national chapters and it proposes areas for future research Plays August Strindberg, 1912 Text in Contemporary Theatre Guna Zeltiņa with Sanita Reinsone, 2014-08-11 This collection of articles is devoted to the relationship between text and performance in contemporary theatre In this volume nineteen theatre and drama researchers from the Baltic countries Sweden Finland Ireland Hungary Russia and China discuss the results of their research into these issues in academic articles and essays The book mainly focuses on the experience of the Baltics in the creation of theatrical texts but it also provides a wider insight into the changing processes of world drama and theatre Three sections of the volume provide numerous examples of the functionality of traditional texts in today's theatre as well as introducing the reader to new names in contemporary drama and the different models of practice in theatre companies This book with its rich collection of material and detailed analysis of different methods and experiences of contemporary theatre is recommended for both theatre and drama theoreticians and practitioners The Swedish Year-book, 1923 The Indian Chiefs of Pennsylvania, Or, A Story of the Part Played by the American Indian in the History of Pennsylvania Chester Hale Sipe, 1927 Theatre Arts Monthly, 1929 Drama, 1926 Dramatic Books & Plays \(in English\) Published During 1913 Henry Eastman Lower, George Heron Milne, 1914 The Theatre, 1890 Vol for 1888
