Global Trend Trauma Healing:

Health, Healing, and Shalom Bryant L. Myers, Erin Dufault-Hunter, Isaac B. Voss, 2015-11-17 Frontiers and Challenges for Christian Healthcare Missions Ever since Jesus's proclamation in word and deed as the Great Physician his followers in mission have assumed that salvation and health are intertwined Yet for every age Christians need to examine how they can best announce the gospel message of God's healing in word and deed in their own context In our era we are often simultaneously grateful for modern medicine and frustrated by its inability to care for the whole person in effective affordable ways In this edited volume authors with an interest in health missions from a wide variety of experiences and disciplines examine health and healing through the theological lens of shalom This word often translated peace names a much more complex understanding of human well being as right relationships with one another with God and with creation Reading various aspects of healthcare missions through these glasses not only yields much needed correctives to current practice but also exposes the Spirit's invitation to participate in God's ongoing work of tending caring and healing our broken world

Integrated Care for the Traumatized Ilene A. Serlin, Stanley Krippner, Kirwan Rockefeller, 2019-07-12 Integrated Care for the Traumatized puts forth a model for the future of behavioral health focused on health care integration and the importance of the Whole Person Approach WPA in guiding the integration This book fills a void applying the WPA integration to the traumatized that enables the reader to learn from experienced trauma practitioners on how to assess and treat trauma as humanely and compassionately as possible This approach of expanding the possibilities of behavioral health by centering upon the whole person is an old idea that is emerging as a modern solution to over specialized practices Among other things this WPA approach completed with spirituality psychology medicine social work and psychiatry helps traumatized and their families function in the social environment The book has four sections Foundations Interventions for Individuals Interventions for Communities and Future of Integrative Care for the Traumatized Each chapter discusses the importance of working within an integrative and WP approach with descriptions of integrative models research evidence and applications that are already working These chapters can help students families and seasoned professionals to improve upon and expand their practice with the traumatized in both the individual and community contexts

Violence and Mental Health Jutta Lindert, Itzhak Levav, 2015-02-25 Violence is one of the most important challenges not only for public health systems but also for public mental health Violence can have immediate as well as long term and even transgenerational effects on the mental health of its victims This book provides a comprehensive and wide ranging assessment of the mental health legacy left by violence It addresses the issues as they affect states communities and families in other words at macro meso and microlevels beginning by describing the impact of violence on neurobiology and mental health as well as the spectrum of syndromes and disorders associated with different forms of violence The work moves on to tackle violence at the international and intranational level before zeroing in on the nature of violence in communities such as villages or city districts It also examines the results of violence in the family Each type of violence has distinct effects on mental health and in each chapter specific groups are explored in depth to demonstrate the heterogeneity of violence as well as the diversity of its outcomes in the realm of public mental health Finally the book addresses the notion of undoing violence by detailing case studies of effective interventions and prevention occurring in countries communities and families These cases give us pause to reflect on the nature of resilience and dignity in the context of violence and mental health All the chapters have been written by leading authors in the field and provide a state of the art perspective The authors from different fields of expertise facilitate interdisciplinary and international insights into the impact of violence on mental health

Gender, Violent Conflict, and Development Dubravka Žarkov, 2008 Papers presented at the Expert Seminar Gender Violent Conflict and Development Issues for Theory Policy and Practice held at Hague on October 2003 Serving Vulnerable and Marginalized Populations in Social and Educational Contexts Anies Al-Hroub, Sally Reis, Joseph Madaus, Itab Shuayb, 2024-04-26 There is evidence that the global COVID 19 crisis is exacerbating existing inequalities and marginalization of vulnerable groups including exceptional learners stateless street migrant and refugee children and youths and the limited use of frameworks of emergency planning with and for marginalized and at risk individuals These challenges are multi sectoral and intersecting and they require multi and interdisciplinary interventions to inform inclusive responses These issues include being at a greater risk of excluding vulnerable learners from gaining access to equitable education online remote and blended education Intersecting forms of discrimination such as gender socioeconomic and legal status further exacerbate the problem This has alerted us to examine the living conditions of marginalized and vulnerable populations around the globe and to reveal their experiences problems and needs from an educational perspective thus bringing insights into their vulnerabilities during the pandemic

The Continuing Role of Theravāda Buddhism in Khmer Healing and Social Development Samuel O'Keefe, 2019-10-23 Research Paper undergraduate from the year 2018 in the subject Theology Buddhism grade 90 00 course Contemporary Cambodian Studies language English abstract This study examines 1 the role that Therav da Buddhism plays today in Cambodian society and the precise ideals and processes within the philosophy conducive to psychological healing and larger social development and 2 the cultural competencies upheld by NGOs providing relief from trauma caused by the aforementioned issues paying specific attention to ways in which these NGOs do and do not harness the healing powers and moral precepts of Therav da Buddhism Research findings suggest the fruitfulness of Buddhist oriented approaches to psychological healing and social development in a country exhibiting high rates of undiagnosed mental illness and low mental health literacy in the rural provinces which demonstrate the highest mental health burden A gradual yet targeted integration of Buddhist spiritual personnel and institutions with psychological and psychosocial support NGOs would be efficacious in enhancing the cultural competency of NGOs approaches while also extending the geographic reach of counseling efforts and resources to the most marginalized in the country In Cambodia trauma lingering from the Khmer Rouge era genocide combined with that produced by compounded social issues including child sexual abuse human trafficking and gender based violence GBV contribute to one of highest rates in the world of what a Western diagnostic model would define as PTSD Such imbricated realities in Cambodia remain stigmatized taboo and misunderstood within Khmer society oftentimes hindering the healing process for survivors at the individual and community levels NGOs analyzed in this study seek to provide psychological and psychosocial support to those experiencing trauma from these events and concurrently promote education on these issues Considering the predominantly Western origins of national NGO donors this study is one of the first to examine cultural competence in the context of national NGOs and trauma stemming from contemporary violence in Cambodia My research examines the impact and sustainability of these organizations approaches toward supporting the holistic healing needs of those experiencing trauma or distress with an eye toward how Theravada Buddhist principles are incorporated into these support and development methods Adoption of a Buddhist spiritual lens was informed and encouraged by both primary and secondary research that revealed the healing and social development tools immanent within Buddhist teachings

South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Muhammed Haron,2009 The South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission An Annotated Bibliography is a much needed reference work for those who are studying and pursuing the outcomes of Truth Commissions around the world However it is also a valuable tool for all researchers from diverse disciplines For example those specialising in the fields of sociology political science and literature will find material that appeals and is relevant to their areas of research There is little doubt that students and researchers pursuing courses such as Conflict Resolution Good Governance and International Relations would find this compilation more than beneficial since it covers not only an assortment of themes but it also includes ingenious cartoons by the famous Zapiro and memorable photographs by George Hallet In addition the compiler also inserted a select number of poems that dealt with the issues and themes related to the TRC process
