Pedagogical Opportunities of the Review Genre Maarit Jaakkola, 2024-06-28 Pedagogical Opportunities of the Review Genre unleashes the pedagogical potential of the review genre reframing the act of reviewing of cultural products as a communicative practice from a pedagogical perspective. Negotiating between traditions of journalism and media studies and pedagogy the author presents a novel approach that will increase the readers understanding of an activity that is on the increase in an era where everyone can be a critic. She identifies, describes and develops genre based pedagogies in formal, non formal and informal contexts of learning and teaching in order to recontextualize the review as a form of learning and rethink of its potential as an inclusive, engaging and a transformative critical cultural practice. This innovative and truly interdisciplinary study will interest students and researchers in the areas of media literacy, digital media, media and communication studies, cultural studies, sociology of arts and pedagogical studies in particular cultural journalism and criticism, audience studies, cultural production and cultural mediation as well as critical media pedagogy and literacy studies.

Proceedings of The 11th European Conference on Social Media Susana Pinto, 2025-06 The European Conference on Social Media ECSM is a well established academic conference held annually for over a decade with a focus on advancing research and dialogue around social media. The primary aim of ECSM is to provide a platform for scholars, researchers, practitioners and industry professionals to share and discuss their findings on the multifaceted impacts of social media. The conference emphasises the importance of understanding how social media influences various sectors including society, education, business and governance.

Technology Application in Tourism Fairs, Festivals and Events in Asia Azizul Hassan, 2022-03-30 It is an unconditional reality that the tourism industry in Asia is becoming exposed to innovative technologies more than ever before. This book reports the latest research in the application of innovative technology to the tourism industry covering the perspectives, innovativeness, theories, issues, complexities, opportunities and challenges affecting tourism in Asia. A blend of comprehensive and extensive efforts by the contributors and editors, it is designed especially to cover technology applications in tourism fairs, festivals and events in Asia. The application and practice of technologies in tourism including the relevant niches of fairs, festivals and events are also covered with a focus on the importance of technology in tourism. This book highlights in a comprehensive manner technologies that are impacting the tourism industry in Asia as well as the constraints it is facing. It deals with distinct topics such as tourism promotion, technology driven sustainable tourism development, social media accessibility and so on to cover fairs, festivals and events. This book is a significant contribution towards the very limited knowledge in this identified research area with examples from selected Asian countries. This book is designed to accommodate both qualitative and quantitative research linking theory and practice. This book has a clear focus on outlining the research issues. Each chapter of the book highlights a methodology that was used with rationale for its use. This book addresses a number of revisions that unify the theme or framework to integrate the chapters    Impact of Infodemic on Organizational Performance Bari, Muhammad Waseem, Alaverdov, Emilia, 2021-06-25 COVID 19 is not the only global challenge that the world is facing these days. The infodemic based on the pandemic COVID 19 is another serious challenge for the world at this time. Each flare up is joined with a large volume of data and information; however, this data can be based on deception, gossip, rumors, and more. Misinformation not only impacts the human body negatively but also impacts mental health. The infodemic has an impact on human health and professional performance but also leaks into business organizations in terms of financial matters, employees' psychological and physical health, employee performance, and the organization's performance. The misinformation regarding health issues can disturb business organizations and affect the employees' organizations' market share and financial matters, future firing and hiring policies of the organizations and international operations of the companies. Though the COVID 19 pandemic may be over in time, the impact of the relevant infodemic will continue to disrupt business organizations for several years into the future. Impact of Infodemic on Organizational Performance highlights the impact of the infodemic due to the pandemic COVID 19 in organizations' performance and enhances the understanding of how the infodemic can and has negatively impacted employees as well as organizational performance. This is supplemented by a view of how organizations are tackling the infodemic and how business organizations can recover from the lasting negative impacts. This book highlights essential topics such as social media knowledge management, business environments, business strategies, employee behavior, and mental health. The target audience includes but is not limited to managers, executives, human resource development counselors, analysts, business organizations, practitioners, researchers, academicians, and students who are interested in the impacts of the infodemic on businesses and their employees and the relevant strategies to combat the effects.    Advances in Design and Digital Communication V Nuno Martins, Daniel Brandão, 2024-12-23 This book reports on research findings and practical lessons featuring advances in the areas of digital and interaction design, graphic design, and branding design, education, society, and communication in design practice and related ones. Gathering the proceedings of the 8th International Conference on Digital Design and Communication Digicom 2024 held on November 7-9, 2024, as a hybrid event in from Barcelos, Portugal, this book continues the tradition of the previous ones reporting on new design strategies to foster digital communication within and between the society, institutions, and brands. By highlighting innovative ideas and reporting on multidisciplinary projects, it offers a source of inspiration for designers of all kinds, including graphic and web designers, UI, UX, and social media designers, and to researchers, advertisers, artists, and brand and corporate communication managers alike.    Disinformation Lisa Ginsborg, Paula Gori, 2026-02-10 This volume provides a multidisciplinary analysis of disinformation and strategies for tackling it. Authored by a diverse group of scholars and experts, chapters in this volume are divided into three thematic sections. The first section delves into disinformation from various disciplinary perspectives, including philosophy, social psychology, economics, international law, data science, anthropology, political science, and history.

By examining the underlying factors behind disinformation and analyzing its impact on democratic processes this section sheds light on its complexities and reminds us that different policy responses are always grounded in different explanatory angles of the phenomenon The second section focuses on the information ecosystem investigating the processes technologies and actors involved in the spread of disinformation By examining real world examples and the roles played by different actors and technologies this sheds light on the intricate workings of disinformation in different thematic and regional contexts The book culminates in the third section which focuses on crafting effective responses to disinformation Chapters in this section explore policy efforts aimed at ensuring information integrity across the world and highlight the importance of fundamental rights and evidence based policy responses encompassing self and co regulation quality journalism fact checking organizations and the pivotal role media literacy initiatives     Adolescence in Context Tara L. Kuther,2025-08-26

Adolescence in Context by award winning author Tara L Kuther is a topically oriented text that connects learners to the science shaping our understanding of today s teenagers and young adults Organized around three core themes the centrality of context the importance of research and the applied value of developmental science the text presents classic and current research along with foundational theories framed in real life intersectional contexts such as sex gender race ethnicity ability and socioeconomic status With the new Second Edition students can expect to gain a deeper understanding of adolescence that they can apply to their personal lives and future careers     Mediating Plureality Morten Bay,2025-03-24 In this book Morten Bay provocatively questions whether or not truth in media is lost and furthermore whether humans can perceive objective reality or as many neuroscientists and philosophers now believe we all perceive different realities constructed through predictive processing As affective polarization continues to render American democracy increasingly dysfunctional a situation largely inflamed by media Bay calls for a cultural shift in which these two conditions are reconciled Drawing on political philosophy this book presents an ethics that holds up responsible media conduct as a democratic duty of all media users This shift in ethical frameworks carries with it different implications for a variety of audiences including individuals media platforms and corporations media practitioners and journalists media studies scholars and society more broadly Each stakeholder involved will need to reconsider their approach to media and reality individuals must accept that everyone s perceptions of reality are different platforms and corporations must cease irresponsible practices that dissociate realities and stoke division practitioners and journalists must develop more nuanced epistemologies beyond The Truth and scholars must redefine media by foregrounding epistemology pluralism and physicality in media theory Collectively Bay argues we must come to a new understanding of reality as a plurality of realities a plureality     Material History Review ,1996     Media Review Digest C Edward Wall,2005-08     Community College Review ,2001     The New Jersey Journal of Communication ,1997     Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2008     Social Studies Review ,2005     The NORDICOM Review of Nordic Mass Communication Research ,1985     Young People in a Digitalised World Europarat,2018 Youth participation in the digitalised world is nowadays a topic of high interest in the public sphere The authors of this publication aim to bring new perspectives and varied visions to the key questions of understanding how young people interact with all the opportunities the digital space has to offer and how they can use this space for causes relevant not only for themselves but also for the democratisation of the societies in which they live By doing so the authors strive to build knowledge on this topic illustrating how the digitalisation of contemporary European societies simultaneously offers significant opportunities and poses considerable challenges Publisher s description American Journalism Review, 2003 Maxcy-Rosenau-Last
