New Dimensions In African History:

New Dimensions in African History Yosef Ben-Jochannan, 1991      Sources and Methods in African History Toyin Falola, Christian Jennings, 2003 An overview of the ongoing methods used to understand African history      Studies on Slavery in Brazilian and African History and Literature Roberto Hofmeister-Pich, Stephan Conermann, 2025-10-14 Historically Latin American political entities were structured by different forms of slave labor that until the 19th century depended on transatlantic slave trade from Africa to the Americas In this volume scholars from Brazil Germany and Africa characterize different forms of serfdom in colonial times picture slavery based societies and explore aspects of dependency relations that emerged in the aftermath of abolition in Brazil and Africa      John Henrik Clarke and the Power of Africana History Ahati N. N. Toure, 2009 In the late 1960s through the late 1980s the late John Henrik Clarke 1915-1998 was one of the foremost architects of the emerging discipline of Africana Studies Africalogy as Professor of African World History in the Department of Black and Puerto Rican Studies at Hunter College of the City University of New York and as the Carter G Woodson Distinguished Visiting Professor of African History at Cornell University's Africana Studies and Research Center The study explores Clarke's development and conceptualization of Afrikan World History by examining his intellectual influences and training his approach to teaching Afrikan World History his notions regarding Publisher's website      Human Sacrifice and the Supernatural in African History Mbogoni, Lawrence E.Y., 2013-11-03 Since time immemorial human beings the world over have sought answers to the vexing questions of their origins sickness death and after death the meaning of natural phenomena such as earthquakes eclipses of the sun and moon birth of twins etc and how to protect themselves from such mysterious events They invented God and gods and the occult sciences witch craft divination and soothsaying in order to seek the protection of supernatural powers while individuals used them to gain power to dominate others and to accumulate wealth Human sacrifice was one way in which they sought to expiate the gods for what they believed were punishments for their transgressions One example the Ghana Asante Kingdom's very origins are associated with human sacrifice On the eve of war against Denkyira individuals volunteered themselves to be sacrificed in order to guarantee victory Later human sacrifice in Asante was mainly politically motivated as kings and religious leaders offered human sacrifice in remembrance of their ancestral spirits and to seek their protection against their enemies The Asante Kingdom is one of several examples included in this study of human sacrifice and ritual killing on the African continent Case studies include practices in Sierra Leone Tanzania Mainland Zanzibar Uganda and Swaziland Advertisements relating to the occult was a common feature of Drum magazine the popular South African magazine in Southern Eastern and Central Africa in late years of colonial and early years of postcolonial periods indicating a wide belief in these practices among the people in these countries Each case examined is introduced by an exposé of folklore that puts in perspective beliefs in the supernatural and how folklore continues to perpetuate them Through careful study of these select cases this book highlights general features of human sacrifice which recur with striking uniformity in all parts of sub Saharan Africa and why they persist until today He draws upon extensive written sources to expose these practices in other cultures including those in Western societies

African People in World History John Henrik Clarke,1993 African history as world history Africa and the Roman Empire Africa and the rise of Islam The mighty kingdoms of Ghana Mali and Songhay The Atlantic slave trade Slavery and resistance in South America and the Caribbean Slavery and resistance in the United States African Americans in the twentieth century The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2003 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1995 Ecology Control and Economic Development in East African History Helge Kjekshus,2023-11-15 Ecology Control and Economic Development in East African History The Case of Tanganyika 1850 1950 explores a significant shift in East African historiography particularly with the move toward political independence This change has prompted a re examination of the African past with an emphasis on reclaiming African agency rejecting colonial era interpretations that focused predominantly on European actions Scholars like Oliver Mathew Kimambo and Temu have led the way in this new wave of historiography arguing that the African past was dynamic and that Africans were active agents in shaping their history particularly in the face of crises such as intertribal warfare and colonial incursions However this study seeks to go beyond political history and traditional frameworks shifting the focus to the ecological and economic systems that shaped African life in the 19th century The book argues that pre colonial East Africans were not merely responding defensively to external crises but were actively engaged in managing their environment and developing their economy Through ecological control such as agricultural and pastoral practices East Africans maintained a sustainable relationship with their land even in the face of challenges like the tsetse fly and the disruptions caused by intertribal conflict This study challenges the prevailing notion that East Africa was economically underdeveloped due to shifting cultivation and warfare Instead it highlights the prosperous agricultural and cattle economies that were able to thrive despite these challenges By examining the economic activities such as agriculture iron smelting and trade the study demonstrates the region's economic vibrancy and the agency of its people in controlling their environment and developing a complex economic system Through this approach the study calls for a reimagined understanding of East African history that emphasizes the active role of its peoples in shaping their destiny This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1977 Who Betrayed the African World Revolution? and Other Speeches John Henrik Clarke,1994 This collection of speeches covers an array of topics from the contributions of Nile Valley civilizations to the future of Pan Africanism in the 21st century Africana Studies Mario Joaquim Azevedo,1998 Africa 2000 ,2001 The Agonistic Imperative Kwesi Otabil,1994 This study takes issue with the notion of cultural relativism a notion which translates into the proposition that all known or knowable cultures are co equally worthy valid in their own right and need therefore to be addressed on their own terms so as to be genuinely appreciated Accredited by the liberal school of Western cultural anthropology the proposition is basically a moral concession nay a compulsion to redistributive egalitarianism within the cultural kaleidoscope that our planet has grown to be But beyond its unctuously moral appeal cultural relativism becomes an intellectual humbug For it conceals the starkly conflictual dynamic to the very comparison of cultures or peoples in the first place The dynamic is no other than the order of modernity an order that has levered into relief over the past four centuries the inequality among cultures It is mainly to help combat the propagation of said faith among Africans that I have contributed the Agonistic Imperative The last is a category for distinguishing among the culture complexes that make up the field of modernity Underlying it is the idea of self transcending unrelenting struggle as a property of the human mind an idea that finds expression in the survivalist potentials of given cultures The African Review ,1992 A journal of African politics development and international affairs Third World Resources ,1990 The Western Journal of Black Studies ,2011 Pan African Nationalism in the Americas James L. Conyer,Julius Eric Thompson,2004 Critical Reflections on Black History William D. Wright,2002-03-30 Annotation Presents historical methodology to augment the critical capacity of research on black history The Evolution of African American Studies James L. Conyers Jr.,1995-01-10 MultiCultural Review ,1992
