Who are the people who write these enormously popular books? How do they live? What do they think? What makes them so special? To find the answers to these questions Charles Platt traveled the USA from coast to coast and then England, visiting the authors in their homes and drawing out their innermost thoughts and aspirations in a wittily revealing series of interviews. His approach is far from adulatory; however, and there are many sharp exchanges and pertinent asides in the course of these fascinating conversations, making for compulsive reading.
