Lost Christianities:

Lost Christianities Bart D. Ehrman,2005 Focusing on key historical texts a biblical authority offers a revealing look at the early church and the intense struggle to form the canon of the New Testament 11 halftones Lost Christianities Bart D. Ehrman,2003 Lost Christianities: The Battles for Scripture and the Faiths We Never Knew and Lost Scriptures: Books That Did Not Make It Into the New Testament BART D. EHRMAN,Bowman and Gordon Gray Professor of Religious Studies Bart D Ehrman,2004-09-02 This unique set combines two of Bart Ehrman s most popular works on the early Christian church Lost Scriptures and Lost Christianities and gives readers a vivid picture of the range of beliefs that battled each other in the first centuries of the Christian era Lost Christianities Bart Ehrman, Lost Christianities Bart D. Ehrman,2023

Lost Scriptures Bart D. Ehrman,2005-09-15 Lost Scriptures offers an anthology of up to date and readable translations of many non canonical writings from the centuries after Christ texts that have for the most part been neglected or lost for nearly two millennia Here is an array of remarkably varied writings from early Christian groups whose visions of Jesus differ dramatically from our contemporary understanding Ehrman has included a general introduction plus brief introductions to each piece Lost Scriptures gives readers a vivid picture of the range of beliefs that battled each other in the first centuries of the Christian era It is an essential resource for anyone interested in the Bible or the early Church Lost Christianities

Jon Leven,Teaching Company,2002 Twenty four lectures on the history and varieties of Christian doctrines in the early church The Quest for Early Church Historiography Jeremiah Mutie,2022-09-09 The Quest for Early Church Historiography explores how early church historiography underwent a significant shift beginning with the thought of Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792 1860 a shift that eventually culminated in the current extreme historiographies of such scholars as Bart D Ehrman 1955 Through the tracing of this historiographical trajectory this work argues that rather than seeing these current historiographies as having suddenly appeared in the scholarly scene a better approach is to see them as the fruit of this long trajectory Of course as the work has sought to demonstrate this trajectory is itself full of turns and twists But the careful reader will hopefully be able to see the intrinsic connections that are demonstrably evident The First Christian Communities, 32 - 380 CE Joyce E. Salisbury,2023-11-24 This concise history of how the Christian Church grew between 32 and 380 focuses on the anonymous Christians who formed diverse congregations as they guided their communities through the age of the Apostles violent martyrdoms and to the establishment of the Roman Church Readers will understand why people converted to Christianity in the first three centuries and learn about the rich diversity of the early church as people interpreted the new religion in different ways This book explores how Christian interactions with the Roman empire led to violent persecutions and martyrdoms and eventually the fourth century establishment of the top down Roman Church Readers also become familiar with Christian texts during this period some became Scripture and some were rejected but all were written to make sense of the Jewish and Christian experience in the Roman Empire These written memories shaped the future of the church It also explores how early Christian lives were shaped by the religious rituals and preaching of their new and changing faith In addition maps illustrations and charts of Christian texts help tell this fascinating story The First Christian Communities 32 380 CE is an accessible and valuable resource suitable for students working on Christian history and Roman and Late Antique social political and religious history as well as general readers who are interested in the origins of Christianity Nexus Yuval Noah Harari,2025-09-16 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From the author of Sapiens comes the groundbreaking story of how information networks have made and unmade our world Strikingly original A historian whose arguments operate on the scale of millennia has managed to capture the zeitgeist perfectly The Economist This deeply important book comes at a critical time as we all think through the implications of AI and automated content production Masterful and provocative Mustafa Suleyman author of The Coming Wave For the last 100 000 years we Sapiens have accumulated enormous power But despite all our discoveries inventions and conquests we now find ourselves in an existential crisis The world is on the verge of ecological collapse Misinformation abounds And we are rushing headlong into the age of AI a new information network that threatens to annihilate us For all that we have accomplished why are we so self destructive Nexus looks through the long lens of human history to consider how the flow of information has shaped us and our world Taking us from the Stone Age through the canonization of the Bible early modern witch hunts Stalinism Nazism and the resurgence of populism today Yuval Noah Harari asks us to consider the complex relationship between information and truth bureaucracy and mythology wisdom and power He explores how different societies and political systems throughout history have wielded information to achieve their goals for good and ill And he addresses the urgent choices we face as non human intelligence threatens our very existence Information is not the raw material of truth neither is it a mere weapon Nexus explores the hopeful middle ground between these extremes and in doing so rediscovers our shared humanity Gospel Thrillers Andrew S. Jacobs,2023-11-30 Conspiratorial fears and desires about biblical discoveries are amplified and contained within the covers of a formulaic fiction genre Divine Consciousness Reena Kumarasingham,2020-10-01 Does Divine Consciousness exist only with the Son of God or within all of us Two thousand years ago a rich myriad of Christian teachings emerged after the death of Jesus Two pillars rose above the din two churches two structures two leaders James the Brother of Jesus and St Paul the Evangelist Journey with St Paul whose tireless efforts laid the foundations for one of the biggest religions in modern times Walk with James the brother of Jesus who was given the mantle to lead the original Church by Jesus upon his death These accounts offer intimate knowledge of what motivated and moved them how and why they built and developed the twin pillars of Christianity and what happened to their respective churches Two thousand years have dimmed the light on these diverse teachings It is now time to illuminate the secret stories of the Early Christian Church and the Divine Consciousness Lost Christianities Christian Scriptures and the Battles Over Authentication Part 1 of 2 Bart D. Ehrman, Forged Bart D. Ehrman,2011-03-22 Bart D Ehrman the New York Times bestselling author of Jesus Interrupted and God's Problem reveals which books in the Bible's New Testament were not passed down by Jesus's disciples but were instead forged by other hands and why this centuries hidden scandal is far more significant than many scholars are willing to admit A controversial work of historical reporting in the tradition of Elaine Pagels Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan Ehrman's Forged delivers a stunning explication of one of the most substantial yet least discussed problems confronting the world of biblical scholarship The Reluctant Parting Julie Galambush,2011-06-14 Discover the New Testament's Forgotten Jewish Origins Found Christianities M. David Litwa,2022-02-24 M David Litwa tells the stories of the early Christians whose religious identity was either challenged or outright denied In the second century many different groups and sects claimed to be the only Orthodox or authentic version of Christianity and Litwa shows how those groups and figures on the side of developing Christian Orthodoxy often dismissed other versions of Christianity by refusing to call them Christian However the writings and treatises against these groups contain fascinating hints of what they believed and why they called themselves Christian Litwa outlines these different groups and the controversies that surrounded them presenting readers with an overview of the vast tapestry of beliefs that made up second century Christianity By moving beyond notions of gnostic heretical and orthodox Litwa allows these lost Christianities to speak for themselves He also questions the notion of some Christian identities surviving or perishing arguing that all second century Catholic groups look very different to any form of modern Roman Catholicism Litwa shows that countless discourses ideas and practices are continually recycled and adapted throughout time in the building of Christian identities and indeed that the influence of so called lost Christianities can still be felt today The ^ALost Gospel of Judas Iscariot Bart D. Ehrman,2006-10-09 The recent National Geographic special on the Gospel of Judas was a major media event introducing to tens of millions of viewers one of the most important biblical discoveries of modern times Now a leading historian of the early church Bart Ehrman offers the first comprehensive account of the newly discovered Gospel of Judas revealing what this legendary lost gospel contains and why it is so important for our understanding of Christianity Ehrman a featured commentator in the National Geographic special describes how he first saw the Gospel of Judas surprisingly in a small room above a pizza parlor in a Swiss town near Lake Geneva and he recounts the fascinating story of where and how this ancient papyrus document was discovered how it moved around among antiquities dealers in Egypt the United States and Switzerland and how it came to be restored and translated More important Ehrman gives the reader a complete and clear account of what the book teaches and he shows how it relates to other Gospel texts both those inside the New Testament and those outside of it most notably the Gnostic texts of early Christianity Finally he describes what we now can say about the historical Judas himself as well as his relationship with Jesus suggesting that one needs to read between the lines of the early Gospels to see exactly what Judas did and why he did it The Gospel of Judas presents an entirely new view of Jesus his disciples and the man who allegedly betrayed him It raises many questions and Bart Ehrman provides illuminating and authoritative answers in a book that will interest anyone curious about the New Testament the life of Jesus and the history of Christianity after his death World Saviors and Messiahs of the Roman Empire, 28 Bce-135 Ce Milo Kearney,James V. Zeitz,2009 The first half of the book examines the past history of the contributing cultures in order to understand why this phenomenon occurred at this time and place It reviews the expectations or prophecies of a coming World Savior in the Zoroastrian Mithraic Jewish and Greco Roman communities Prophecies actual or perceived which dated the appearance of such a Savior are considered The second half of the book looks at the acclaimed Roman Jewish Samaritan and Greek Saviors of the Soterial Age itself The question of why Jesus followers eventually prevailed over the others is addressed and the phenomenon is placed in a universal perspective with a review of soterial expectations in early religions around the globe The book concludes with the impact of the soterial movement on the Roman Empire and later Western World The New Interpreter's Study Bible Walter J. Harrelson,2003 In a new study Bible based on The New Revised Standard Version with Apocrypha 60 scholars provide background and insight on the biblical text in a book that features extensive historical and theological annotations brief introductions and outlines for each biblical book 19 newly commissioned historical maps and more The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,2008-04
