

The background of the entire image is a desert landscape with a large, vibrant rainbow arching across the sky. In the foreground, a paintbrush with a green handle and a silver ferrule is shown in the process of painting a cactus onto the sandy ground. The cactus is depicted with simple, dark outlines and a small orange flame-like shape at its base. The overall style is whimsical and artistic.

Lost In Etchitopia:

Understanding Ethiopia's Tigray War Martin Plaut, Sarah Vaughan, 2023-02-16 The war in Ethiopia's northern region of Tigray began in November 2020. It inflicted more casualties than any other contemporary conflict in the world. It has also been among the least understood. The fighting and accompanying blockade led to an estimated 600,000 deaths more than the number who died in the 1984-5 famine. International journalists were banned as the region was sealed off from the outside world by Ethiopian and Eritrean governments prosecuting a strategy designed to crush Tigray at almost any cost. Hatred of Tigrayans was stoked by senior advisers to Ethiopia's Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed; they have called Tigrayans weeds who must be uprooted, their place in history extinguished. Their language was reminiscent of that which preceded the genocide in Rwanda. The war was also orchestrated by Eritrea's President Isaias Afwerki, who came to wield increasing influence over Ethiopian affairs. It drew in Somali troops as well as Eritrean forces. Peace agreements signed in November 2022 ended the worst of the violence but without resolving the war's underlying drivers, which continue to feed a tense and uncertain situation. This book provides the first clear explanation of the factors that led to the conflict, unravelling their roots in Ethiopia's long and complex history. It describes the battles that were fought at such terrible cost and the immense suffering, particularly of women who were brutally abused.
