The Lost Summer Tony Buttita, 2003-12-31 Warships of the Soviet Fleets 1939-1945 Przemyslaw Budzbon, Jan Radziemski, Marek Twardowski, 2022-12-12 Seventy five years after the end of the Second World War the details of Soviet ships their activities and fates remain an enigma to the West In wartime such information was classified and after a brief period of glasnost openness the Russian state has again restricted access to historical archives Therefore the value and originality of this work is difficult to exaggerate It sees the first publication of reliable data on both the seagoing fleets and riverine flotillas of the Soviet Navy listing over 6200 vessels from battleships to river gunboats and mercantile conversions as well as purpose built warships This second part of the three volume series includes all the remaining fighting vessels not already covered in Volume I Beginning with the Uragan class rated as Escort Ships and the first seagoing warships designed by the Soviet Union the book then moves on to Submarine Hunters both large and small Patrol craft Minelayers and Minesweepers and unusual types like Floating Artillery Batteries and Anti Aircraft Defense Ships concluding with Landing Ships and Craft Many of these vessels have hitherto been poorly documented but given the nature of the land centered Soviet war against Germany their contribution should not be underestimated The details of their service and not least the circumstances of their loss constitute a major addition to Western understanding of the Soviet Navy s war effort This is undoubtedly one of the most important naval reference works of recent years and will be welcomed by anyone with an interest in warships the Soviet Navy or wider maritime aspects of the Second World War Furthermore as recent Russian actions appear to revive Soviet era aspirations this book offers both new insights and valuable background of contemporary relevance Poems Mary Anne Kelly O'Doherty, 2024-07-30 Reprint of the original first published in 1877
