Lost Universe:

The Lost Universe Gene Weltfish, 1977-01-01 A fascinating insight into the life and culture of the Pawnee people is achieved here by the author's presentation of carefully gathered information in the form of a narrative of one year in Pawnee village. The first few chapters lay the groundwork of kinship lines followed by a narration of the life of one person in the village. Customs, ceremonies, beliefs, and hard work become apparent as the author leads one through the intricacies of the activities. Although it presents a great deal of detailed anthropological material, the manner of presentation turns the book into a readable account. The book is based on years of first-hand study as well as scholarly research and is recommended as an in-depth study of Plains Indian life. Reprint Bulletin Book Reviews. Gene Weltfish is coauthor with Ruth Benedict of The Races of Mankind. She is also the author of The Origins of Art and other books.

Marginality and 'Resistencia' Miguel Rivas Venegas, Martina L. Weisz, 2024-12-30 This book promotes international and interdisciplinary reflections on narratives of exclusion, liminality, dissident power, and the forging of new identities during the last decades. Focusing on the rich case studies presented by the Spanish-speaking world and beyond, it seeks to generate a deeper understanding of the mechanisms of othering and the strategies being developed by the traditionally suppressed voices of marginalized ethnic, gender, and mnemonic communities in order to be heard.

The Lost Universe Gene Weltfish, 1965

Stories of the Divine Aldivan Teixeira Torres, 2026-01-07 Stories of the Divine is a vibrant anthology that brings together narratives infused with imagination, sensitivity, and the rich cultural heritage of Brazil. Each story opens a door to worlds where the extraordinary blends with the everyday, revealing fantastic adventures, deep reflections, and characters who embody both the human and the sacred. In this book, Aldivan Torres guides the reader through paths that move, entertain, and enchant. These are tales that engage with diverse beliefs, traditions, and worldviews, celebrating Brazil's spiritual and cultural diversity. Through writing that is both accessible and deeply symbolic, the author offers a literary mosaic capable of touching readers of all ages and backgrounds.

Stories of the Divine Aldivan Torres, 2025-08-07 Universe of psychic stories. A mixture of action, romance, fiction, and adventure. Stories for all tastes. Knowing appreciation is key to cultured man. Enter this wonderful universe.

Lost Ate My Life Jon Lachonis, Amy J Johnston, Amy Johnston, 2008 An examination of the fandom that supports the show and a magnified view of the plot.

The Roots of Dependency Richard White, 1988-01-01 Richard White's study of the collapse into dependency of three Native American subsistence economies represents the best kind of interdisciplinary effort. Here, ideas and approaches from several fields—mainly anthropology, history, and ecology—are fruitfully combined in one inquiring mind, closely focused on a related set of large, salient problems. A very sophisticated study, a best read in Indian history. American Historical Review. The book is original, enlightening, and rewarding. It points the way to a holistic manner in which tribal histories and studies of Indian-white relations should be written in the future. It can be recommended to anyone interested in Indian affairs, particularly in the question of the present day.
