Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds,Anna Rocca,2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women s articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman s stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women s lives

Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research. A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances. This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic, sexual, gender and general subjects related to identity. In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism, personal expression and formative experiences.

Le cercle de Finsbury B.A. Paris, 2021-03-04 Alice croyait avoir trouvé la maison de ses rêves. Quand Léo et elle étaient nagent au Cercle de Finsbury une résidence haut de gamme en plein Londres la jeune femme est persuadé de prendre enfin un nouveau départ. Et tant pis si les choses sont allées un peu vite avec Léo et si celui-ci a pris en charge leur émotion nagent sans véritablement la consulter. La maison est parfaite la résidence idéale et les voisins semblent si accueillants. Mais ce fut celle de ses pires cauchemars. Lorsqu'Alice apprend que Nina qui vivait dans la maison avant qu'ils n'étaient nagent y a été sauvagement assassinée le vague sentiment d'insécurité qu'elle ressentait jusqu'alors se transforme en peur puis en terreur. Une présence strange semble hanter les murs et non Léo qui semble lui cacher beaucoup de choses ni les voisins qui consacrent le plus clair de leur temps à dévoiler les uns les autres ne la rassurent. Et puis l'on passe bien trop facilement d'une maison à l'autre à l'intérieur du Cercle pour pouvoir y dormir en paix.
