Monastery Prayer Work Community:

Monastery: Prayer, Work, Community M. Basil Pennington, 1957 Monastery Without Walls Bruce L. Davis, PhD, 2001-06-21 There is a part of each of us that is a monk or a mystic We yearn for perfect peace yet live our lives far removed from traditional monasteries yet most of us would not want to give up our personal and spiritual freedom to join monastic life We seek wholeness but realize that wholeness is not possible without sacredness Sacred life takes root in solitude in the time we take to develop a relationship with our inner life in the kind of setting a monastery would offer This book speaks to the monk or mystic within us It affirms our place in the sacred silence of solitude and inner reflection showing how even everyday life is filled with opportunities to live fully in the world as if it were a holy monastery Here we learn to live within the limits as well as the spirit of everyday life how to appreciate our most human self as the path to explore the divine Here we encounter a world that is clearly available to us a world filled with nothing less than the gift of sacred silence within the monastery without walls Monastery M. Basil Pennington, 1983 A Scala book Bibliography p 115 120 Prologue Thomas Merton on the monastic life 1 A living tradition 2 Ora Labora Vita Communis prayer work community 3 In our time Chronology of monasticism For further reading Another World William Claassen, 2007-10-15 Another World explores day to day life in a small Trappist monastery tucked away in the Ozark foothills Interweaving memoir with conversations with the monks observations of community life and relationships with other visitors Claassen provides a window into contemporary monastic life Each chapter describes a day in the monastery The reading experience is like spending time away from the world in a real community that is very human and gently inspiring Eighteen black white photos by the author further evoke the experience Saints and Feasts of the Liturgical Year John Paul Thomas, 2023-12-10 If a list were made of the greatest human beings who have ever lived those reflected upon in this four volume series would be at the top of that list Though historians often attempt to judge greatness from their own subjective perspective there must be an objective criteria by which human greatness is judged The only Person Who is capable of establishing that criteria is God The criteria that God has established are the virtues as identified by Jesus and revealed by Him through the holy Gospels The goal of this four volume series is to present each saint found on the Catholic liturgical calendar as a Solemnity Feast or Memorial in such a way as to identify the Godly virtues that place them on the top of that list Though their greatness has already been established and their heroic virtues confirmed by the Church God chose the men and women found in these pages not only for greatness in their lifetimes but also as models of holiness in ours These men and women are gifts to you given by God through the Church Every saint is unique but every saint is similar because each one became living witnesses to Christ and living Gospels for a world in need Some saints were united to God through martyrdom some through virginity and chastity some through works of charity and some through lives of intense prayer The saints have come from every culture every socio economic background every level of education and every personality type Through every saint God shines forth radiating His abundant mercy through the diversity of their lives In the end it is not their personality preferences gifts or any other unique qualities that unite them as the one communion of saints It is God and God alone Who floods their souls and forms them into a united song of praise of God s eternal glory Why read about the saints Why learn about their lives Why ponder what they said and did The answer is simple You are called to be among their company You are called to become as holy as they were transformed by God s grace and to radiate that grace in the world today At first the virtues of the saints might seem to be out of your reach The saints can appear to be superhuman The truth is that the saints became fully human by becoming who they were created to be They rejected the deceptions of the devil the seductions of the world and the weaknesses of the flesh Instead they discovered the truths of God sought out the riches of Heaven and became filled with the strength of every virtue As you read about the lives of the saints ponder their words and actions study their heroic virtues and learn from their lives of prayer allow yourself not only to be inspired by them but also to desire to imitate them Nothing is stopping you from being counted among the saints in Heaven God promises to lavish every grace upon you that you need to walk down that holy path Only when you refuse His grace is that mission thwarted

Thirsting for God Francis Wagner,2014-08-26

The monks of Saint Meinrad Archabbey like other men and women who have followed the Rule of St Benedict for centuries dedicate their lives to prayer work and community life based on the Gospel They thirst for God and with Christians everywhere lift up their hands call on God s name and say Lord teach us to pray Thirsting for God Prayers from a Monastery offers a sip from the deep well of contemplation available to us all The prayers poems and reflections shared in this small volume express a yearning not so different from our own Truly our combined thirst for God reveals a cup that overflows
