Cordasco,2021-12-28 The twenty first century has witnessed an explosion of speculative fiction in translation SFT Rachel Cordasco examines speculative fiction published in English translation since 1960 ranging from Soviet era fiction to the Arabic language dystopias that emerged following the Iraq War Individual chapters on SFT from Korean Czech Finnish and eleven other source languages feature an introduction by an expert in the language s speculative fiction tradition and its present day output Cordasco then breaks down each chapter by subgenre including science fiction fantasy and horror to guide readers toward the kinds of works that most interest them Her discussion of available SFT stands alongside an analysis of how various subgenres emerged and developed in a given language She also examines the reasons a given subgenre has been translated into English An informative and one of a kind guide Out of This World offers readers and scholars alike a tour of speculative fiction s new globalized era The Scandals of Translation Lawrence Venuti,2002-09-11 Translation is stigmatized as a form of writing discouraged by copyright law deprecated by the academy exploited by publishers and corporations governments and religious organizations Lawrence Venuti exposes what he refers to as the scandals of translation by looking at the relationship between translation and those bodies corporations governments religious organizations publishers who need the work of the translator yet marginalize it when it threatens their cultural values Venuti illustrates his arguments with a wealth of translations from The Bible the works of Homer Plato and Wittgenstein Japanese and West African novels advertisements and business journalism or even genocidal state policies but it may also be used to legitimate racist institutions A substantive introduction by the editor examines global political economic frameworks for the cultural debates affecting children and traces intriguing sometimes surprising threads throughout the papers In addition to the editor the contributors are Norma Field Marilyn Ivy Mary John Hae joang Cho Saya Shiraishi Vivienne Wee Pamela Reynolds Kathleen Hall Ruth Mandel Manuela Carneiro da Cunha and Njabulo Ndebele Japanese Society Today Kōtaku Ishidō,David A.
